INCENDIARY FIRE THREATENS LUTHERAN SCHOOL

'School reorganization rests with voters

Survey group must report by June 1st

Further school consolidations throughout Cook County will be brought to the attention of school patrons in the districts for which the county school survey committee recommend changes. After nearly two years of studies that committee will make its final report before June 1st. A series of meetings in the proposed consolidated districts will be held the next two months.

LAST WEEK'S Palatine Enterprise published the dates for meetings in Barrington, Hanover and Schaumburg townships. Palatine township which has consolidated all but two of its district schools is omitted. The Bergman district, No. 18, which opposed the Palatine consolidation is not included at this time. Another rural school that could be called an orphan is school district 61, in the western part of Elk Grove township. The voters of that district refused to become a part of the newly consolidated district No. 59 of Elk Grove township.

CONSOLIDATIONS also include a number of high schools and elimination of much non-high school territory. The committee will ask the people of Schaumburg if they desire to form a high school district from Hanover township. There is a small high school in Bartlett. Twenty-four students of Schaumburg attend the Palatine high school, a few at Arlington and others at Elgin.

A large part of Elk Grove township is now non-high school territory. Its residents will have the opportunity to express preference for Arlington, Bensenville or Maine.

School district 20 (Palatine and Arlington Heights roads) and Forestview school district 56 (Arlington Heights road) are both within a short distance of the village of Arlington Heights, to which the committee recommends they be consolidated.

Two other recommendations for schools in Wheeling township are the consolidation of village of Wheeling with Merrill (22), Dundee road and Strong (22) Milwaukee ave.

Another recommendation is the consolidation of Mt. Prospect public school, Prospect Heights and Feenahville into one district.

In school district No. 26, Feenahville, a petition has been signed by 75 persons from Forest River stating that they do not want any consolidation of that school district with the school district in Mt. Prospect.

School district No. 23 in Prospect Heights also definitely is opposed to any offers of school consolidation with any other school unit.

Also suggested for one district in Northfield township are Northbrook (28) Grove (27) Maple (30) and West Northfield (31).

The recommendations, if unanimously adopted, will reduce 109 Cook County elementary districts to 36. The committee has also reported 12 recommendations for high school districts.

At the present time there are 61 elementary school districts and 23 high school districts in Cook County, Simon said.

The recommendations of the committee were submitted in a tentative report which was filed with the county superintendent in June, 1947. Under the law the Survey Committee must now hold public hearings in which it will explain the benefits and advantages resulting from the organization or changes in the boundaries of the district. Legal notice must be published and any resident of the county may be heard with reference to the reorganization, Simon said.

"The ultimate decision lies with the people," Simon declared. "The committee and I will in no way feel hurt if any recommendations are turned down. We will strictly abstain from any activity designed to influence voting."

Simon explained that the hearings have been delayed because of weather and transportation. "We want all of the people in the school district to have every opportunity to be present," he said.

The General Assembly last year enacted two important amendments to the School Survey Act. A unit district can be established by an election called for in a petition signed by 100 or

Two boys arrested for following fire trucks

The next time you hear the village siren announcing a fire, think twice before you follow your fire-bug inclinations in Arlington Heights.

Two boys were arrested Saturday morning, March 13, for following too closely behind the village fire apparatus as it answered a fire alarm.

They were brought into court Wednesday morning, March 17, and fined $2 and costs each by Judge William Neumann.

"We're going to be strict about enforcing this village ordinance against running after fire trucks," Judge Neumann reported, "and these two cases should be a lesson to anyone who gets too close."

The fire ordinance, section forty, titled Following fire apparatus prohibited, states:

"It shall be unlawful for the operator of any vehicle other than one on official business to follow closer than 500 feet any fire apparatus traveling in response to a fire alarm or to drive or stop any vehicle within the block where fire apparatus has stopped in answer to a fire alarm."

Any one violating this ordinance will be served a summons for arrest and must appear in court to answer charges.

Friendly judge named in $50,000 arrest suit

Judge McKinley threw out of court Tuesday the injunction petition, stating that he would not restrain any public official from pressing any criminal action. Judge Neumann has mailed a notice to Graff that his case will be called next Wednesday at 9:00 a. m.

William Neuman, Arlington Heights police magistrate discovered last week that it is dangerous to do a kind deed for a man charged with disorderly conduct. Because of his willingness to allow Harry J. Graff to go home to his wife and children without posting a $28 bond, Neumann is one of the defendants named in a $50,000 law suit by Graff.

Also named in the lawsuit are Police Officer Johnson, Arlington Seating Co., Carl M. Ebitsch, superintendent and Louis Resner, who is charged with falsely accusing Graff, a night watchman, of stealing $30 from his locker.

Graff charges he was libeled because of an alleged false arrest.

The Arlington Seating Co. claims that Graff lost his job because of the disturbance he was making on the property of the company, the argument becoming so heated that Chief Skoog was called, but Graff willingly left the office of the superintendent.

Nearly two hours later Officer Johnson took him into custody, booking him for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Neumann, called to the station, released Graff on assurance of Attorney Fritz that he would guarantee Graff's appearance.

That is all that Judge Neumann had to do with the case, except to call the case for trial on March 3 when he granted a continuance at Graff's request.

Last Wednesday Neumann was served with a notice by Mrs. Graff that her husband before Judge Donald S. McKinley prohibiting prosecution on the charge made by Officer Johnson.

At the suggestion of Attorney Thal Mr. Neumann granted a further continuance to see what it was all about. He does not know yet, except that he has a $50,000 suit hanging over his head.

Village Attorney Thal notified the village board Monday night that he had filed an appearance in defense of Johnson and Neumann.

'We' have slot machines, says revenue office

The hush-hush on the presence of slot machines is no more. The internal revenue department has released a list of establishments which applied for and were granted gaming machine stamps. There are 515 private clubs and public places in Cook County that have the federal legalized machines. Lake county has 646 and DuPage county 48.

UNCLE SAM received $100 for each machine registered with the office of the collector. A considerable number of the public places are golf clubs which is no secret to the golfer.

Following are the number of private and golf clubs and public places in this area which were granted gaming machine stamps since last July: (The name of town is the postoffice address only and does not necessarily mean the municipality).

	Private	Others
Arlington Heights	0	3
Bartlett	0	4

Bensenville	0	4
Bloomington	0	1
Cloverdale	0	1
Itasca	0	1
Medinah	0	1
Ontarioville	1	10
Roselle	0	1
Wood Dale	0	1

SURPRISINGLY few slot machines are in Cook County while the resort areas of Lake County are filled with them. Lake Zurich has 25. The majority of the machines in Cook county are in the southern part. In DuPage County, the little community of Ontarioville, on the boundary between Lake and Cook County is high with ten machines. Addison is second with seven. Their exact locations are available to enforcing officers.

The release of the locations puts the slot machine cleanup directly into the laps of the sheriffs.

Enlarging his anti-gambling drive to include a concentrated attack on slot machines, Sheriff Elmer Michael Walsh on Tuesday announced the seizure of 50 machines from a list of locations printed in newspapers taken from federal tax records, and visited the Federal building to put this source of information on an organized basis.

In a 40-minute visit with Collector of Internal Revenue John T. Jarecki, he examined a file of 4,600 cards showing the locations of "coin-operated gaming devices" in the 26 counties of northern Illinois on which $100 federal tax had been paid for the year ending June 30, 1948, including 104 in the city of Chicago and 411 in suburban Cook county. This has been public information, open to law-enforcement officials, since the annual tax was enacted in 1941, he was told.

"I will send two men to take off the information for me tomorrow morning," Walsh told the collector before leaving. "I never knew it was here until I read about it."

Sheriff Walsh said he would continue his policy of "concentrating on possessors of slot machines who are suspected of being syndicate-controlled."

The addition of the new home visitor to the high school staff is being made possible by a new Illinois law which permits the state to pay the full salary of such an employee.

Miss Riordan's new duties will begin April 4.

Arrow dance Saturday

A dance given by the order of the Arrow, an honor camper's brotherhood, will be held at the Arlington Heights field house Saturday evening. Dancing begins at 8:30 p. m., with music by Len Biggett's orchestra. Admission is $1.20 per couple, tax included.

Neighbors object to display of 'Pre-fabs'

"Pre Fabs" had a bit of hard sledding Monday night at the Arlington Heights board meeting. A delegation from the Northwest Community Betterment group, residents of Arlington Park, were present with a petition asking that the building code be enforced against Arlington Pre Fabs, not inc., which has erected for display purposes four prefabricated structures at the corner of Northwest Highway and Wilke road.

Attorney Thal stated that he could not see how the building code had been broken as the buildings are only displays. The delegation was not satisfied with the interpretation of Thal and insisted that the structures were illegally constructed. Mr. Thal stated he is ready to be shown and an attorney for the Community Betterment Group will endeavor to do the showing.

THE BOARD answered a call for help from property owners in the area of Arlington Heights and Rand roads. At a recent public hearing held by the Cook County zoning board on the rezoning of 2 1/2 acres for amusement purposes, the village was not represented. The zoning officials told the resident objectors that their case would be strengthened if they could get the village to file objections.

A petition signed by nearly fifty property owners was presented to the village council. The village clerk was directed to notify the zoning board that the village opposed the rezoning.

APPROVAL of a plat covering a small subdivision east of Eastwood will be withheld to give the owner an opportunity to change restrictions from $7,500 homes to a restriction based on cubic content, a restriction suggested to the board several months ago but for which there is as yet no provision in existing building code.

The board took a recess to enable the mayor to answer an emergency phone call from North Pine street, where water was rising in several basements. The caller, William Weber, appeared in person a few minutes later, inviting board members to aid in washing the power lawn mower, washing machine and a heating plant out of the flood area on his property.

WEBER GOT immediate action—assurance that the existing sewer on Pine, between Frederick and Hawthorne would be cleared of obstructions which Alderman Luehring believes will give the desired relief.

The request of the water department for a pickup truck was granted. Bids will be advertised in April.

THE BOARD learned through a balance sheet as of March 1, that the general fund is almost depleted. A transfer of $10,000 from the working cash fund to the general fund was authorized.

The current payroll approved was $10,735. Chief expenditures was $7,596 on the well contract, which payment comes from the water fund.

Following the approval of revised tavern license, an ordinance was passed requiring a thousand dollar bond from each tavern owner. Both ordinances appear in this week's Herald.

Wages campaign for congressional seat

John Nuveen, candidate for the Republican nomination for congress from the newly organized 13th congressional district. He will attend a meeting of volunteer workers of Wheeling township Saturday afternoon at Arlington fieldhouse at 4:30 p. m.

A neighborly visit between neighbors

Arlington Heights aldermen had the opportunity Monday night to show the neighborly spirit to officials from Mt. Prospect who, unannounced, walked into the meeting of the Arlington Board. Mayor Pendleton, when called upon by Mayor Goedke explained the visit to a desire on their part to see how Arlington solved municipal problems.

The visitors discovered that evening that neighboring communities have similar troubles—water in basements, zoning problems, subdivision approvals, building permits and other worries.

A citizen delegation appearing before the Arlington board that evening was not so much different in their demands than the citizenry in Mt. Prospect, except when a Mt. Prospect group has a grievance, it is a packed house in the Mt. Prospect municipal chamber.

"Wait until we build our new municipal building and come down and see us," was the parting invitation of the visitors.

Chief Skoog took the visitors from Mt. Prospect on a personally conducted tour through the building, including radio station WBNQ.

Members of Mt. Prospect board present were: Mayor Pendleton, and trustees Mott, Welch and Hartwig.

State fire marshal calls blaze an act of arsonist

Luehring asks show down on parking plan

Alderman Luehring took "the bull by the horns" Monday evening and asked the Arlington Hts. village board to take immediate action on adoption of the parking plan that had previously been presented to the board.

The alderman not only asked for the plan's o. k., but also asked authority to ask for bids on parking meters.

SUGGESTIONS for further delay were first opposed by Luehring but the aldermen agreed to withhold final action until the Chamber of Commerce could be heard. That group has been invited to meet with the board at 8:30 next Monday evening.

Mr. Luehring outlined his position with the following statement:

"The people of this community expect a new parking ordinance and it is up to this board to act tonight. Parking has been under discussion for at least five years or more and no definite action has ever been taken."

"WE SUBMITTED a proposal plan six months ago, which board members and others have had the opportunity to scrutinize. Voters expect their elected officials to run the affairs of the village and I feel that I would be negligent in my duty if I did not ask for action on a parking plan and installation of parking meters."

Mr. Luehring told the board that the parking meters could be installed at no expense to the village and after nine months' trial could be thrown out if not satisfactory.

THE ALDERMAN also asked that a committee of three be appointed to submit for consideration available tracts for computer parking.

As a result of a conference recently held with members of the park board, the aldermen have no designs on use of present railroad parks for parking purposes, with the possible exception of the park south of the railroad and west of Vail street.

St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights, was threatened Saturday night when an incendiary fire started in a closet off the auditorium on the second floor. The state fire marshal, called by Fire Chief Winkelman, investigated the blaze, and termed it an arson act. Officials of the school had previously reached a similar conclusion.

Damage to the school building is estimated at $2500, fully covered by insurance. A grand piano, forty choir robes and the music library were also destroyed. The quick work of Donald Lussman is credited with preventing a more serious loss. He saw the blaze a block away, ran into the school and was directing water on the fire from a fire hose installed in the auditorium when the building was built.

THE ALARM was turned in by Rev. Stephan. Mrs. Fred Dettmer, 214 N. Vail, saw sparks and smoke coming from the upper floor of the school house. She ran to the parsonage, notifying Rev. Stephan, who, after one look at the rear of the building, turned in the fire alarm, unlocked the front doors and turned on the electric lights. The firemen arrived almost immediately. It was necessary to use water which caused the greater part of damage to the building than actual flames.

Investigation showed that entrance had been gained to the building by forcing a window. Evidences of matches revealed that the first effort to start a blaze in a school room had failed. The marauders, after starting the blaze in the closet, left the school auditorium through a fire door which they left open as they fled down the steel fire escape.

It is evident that the miscreant who forced his way into the school was at least of high school age or older. Any younger person would not have been able to force open the window, the lock of which was broken.

A WEEK EARLIER some one broke into the parish house, and destroyed a quilt being finished by the ladies aid.

Though the choir robes have been destroyed, the usual Easter music at St. Peter church will be heard, Rev. Stephan has announced.

AN ADDITION of a boiler room, 22x23, to the basement of the school is nearing completion. A new oil fuel boiler has been installed. A second addition for kitchen purposes, adjoining the boiler room, is under consideration, which will provide a greater seating capacity in the dining room.

Henry Meyer, builder of a house at Hawthorne and Dunton reported to the Arlington police February 22 that four fires had been started by some person at that site. In one instance he used a shovel to extinguish the blaze. Two bottles that formerly contained kerosene were found.

Final Sunday evening speaker here March 28

The fourth and final speaker of the Sunday evening lecture series, sponsored by the Arlington Heights Woman's club, will appear in Arlington Heights Sunday, March 28, at 8 p. m.

Burton Holmes, noted travelogue lecturer, will speak at that time at the Arlington Heights township high school auditorium, and will show a color travelogue on the "Pacific Northwest," especially featuring the states of Oregon and Washington.

The picture that will be shown was taken by Ted Phillips.

The travelogue will show the audience the rose festival in Portland, the Columbia river, the Grand Coulee dam, and the snow peaks of Mt. Rainier, Mr. Hood and Mt. Bazer.

The film, which is entirely new, has not been shown in Chicago this year.

Tickets are $1 single admission and 50 cents for students.

Hero of Pacific with Rickenbacker coming to Arlington

Lt. James C. Whittaker, who was marooned in the Pacific with Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker and his crew, will give an address at the Arlington Heights high school gymnasium Friday, April 16, at 8:00 p. m. Whittaker is the author of "We Thought We Heard the Angels Sing," an inspiring account of his adventures on a life raft. His talk bears the same title.

Boost tavern licenses in Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights tavern owners and operators of package stores will pay an increased license fee, starting April 30. The ordinance, which some of the tavern owners stringently opposed, was given a second reading Monday night and passed.

The tavern owners opposing the increase were given the opportunity a week earlier to present their objections, which in the minds of the aldermen were not of sufficient weight to cause them to change the ordinance. Present and the new fees are:

	Old	New
Class A—Retail sale on premises	$350	$600
Class B—Package stores	200	400
Class C—Sale and consumption of beer on premises	100	200
Class D—Sale of beer only	100	200
Class C—Daily permit for sale of beer	10	10

Nominations for school board close Saturday

With the terms of many school board members expiring in April, school boards in the Cook county area have been receiving petitions from candidates for the open positions and from incumbent board members desiring re-election.

All petitions for board positions must be filed with the secretary of each school board district by Saturday, March 20.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS to determine the new board members will be held Saturday, April 10, throughout the county.

In the Arlington Heights township high school petitions from three incumbent members have been received as of Wednesday, March 17.

Elmer F. Laurin, 430 S. Evergreen, president of the board, has petitioned for re-election. The president's term is one year.

TWO OTHER incumbent members also have petitioned for re-election for three-year terms each. They are Walter Kroeber, 402 W. Fremont, Arlington Heights, and Martin F. Maher, 303 E. Hawthorne, Arlington Heights.

In Arlington Heights school district No. 25, composed of the South and North elementary schools, Nicholas M. Lattof, 212 N. Haddow, Arlington Heights, president of the board, has petitioned for re-election. His term is for one year.

Arthur G. Cubley, 800 N. Pine, Arlington Heights, a board member for the past three years, will not run for re-election. A petition for the open position has been received from Victor L. Beddingfield, 612 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights.

Board member Warren L. Fellingham, 810 N. Dunton, also has petitioned for re-election to the post he held the last three years.

Nine days to wait for Easter Egg hunt

Boys and girls of Arlington Heights are reminded this week that there are only nine more days to wait before the big Easter Egg hunt being planned for them by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and the Chamber of Commerce.

Safe Headlamps

SAFE driving at night begins with safe headlamps. They reduce eye-strain, lessen fatigue, prevent accidents. Here's all that needs to be done. If your car is an older model, very likely the reflectors need polishing; dimmed-out bulbs or cracked lenses should be replaced, and loose or dirty wiring connections cleaned and tightened. If your car is a later model, with Sealed Beam lighting, a burned-out headlamp can be made "as good as new" with a Sealed Beam replacement unit.

Whatever the age of your car, headlamps should be checked for "aim" at regular intervals—and after any minor collision.

For headlamp service, and all kinds of automotive service, our competent mechanics, modern service methods and original-equipment parts assure you of dependable workmanship.

St. Peter holy week services

The Sacrament of Holy Communion will receive pronounced emphasis during the solemn Holy Week services at St. Peter Ev. Lutheran church, the Rev. L. V. Stephan has announced.

Maundy Thursday the congregation will remember the institution of the Sacrament in the upper room in Jerusalem. The pastor will preach on "THE SACRAMENT OF LOVE." All confirmands confirmed on Palm Sunday will commune in a body, along with parents, relatives and members of the congregation. The service begins at 8 p. m., with a preparatory service for the communicants beginning at 7:30 p. m.

Good Friday, with the altar and the altar cross draped in the traditional black, the Sacrament will be observed again for all those who did not commune Maundy Thursday. The service begins at 8 p. m. with a guest speaker in the pulpit. The preparatory service for the communicants opens at 7:30 p. m. A similar German service with Holy Communion will take place at 10 a. m. Good Friday, with a preparatory service starting at 9:30 a. m.

The two choirs and two organists of the congregation will furnish appropriate church music for all services. The public is invited to attend.

A triumphant Easter Sunrise service is planned for March 28, beginning at 6 a. m. Renditions by both the adult and children's choirs, as well as on the organ, will enhance the beauty of this Sunrise Service. The pastor will preach on "EASTER LIGHT." Easter festival services will follow at 9:15 and 10:45 a. m. respectively. The theme of the pastor's sermon will be "INTO THE GARDEN OF LIFE."

News of VFW Post 981

The next regular meeting of the Arlington Heights post will be held Friday, March 19, at 8 p. m. at 17 E. Miner street. Election of officers will be held. All members are urged to attend.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

The subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, March 14, was:

"SUBSTANCE"

The Golden Text was:

"For ever, O Lord, thy word is settled in heaven. Thy faithfulness is unto all generations" (Ps. 119: 89, 90).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon were the following from the Bible:

"Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some shall depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of devils; . . . But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing of whom thou hast learned them. . . . That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good words" (I Tim. 4: 1; II Tim. 3: 14, 17).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy:

"As God is substance and man is the divine image and likeness, man should wish for, and in reality has, only the substance of good, the substance of Spirit, not matter. The belief that man has any other substance, or mind, is not spiritual and breaks the First Commandment, Thou shalt have one God, one Mind. . . . Spirit, the synonym of Mind, Soul, or God, is the only real substance. The spiritual universe, including individual man, is a compound idea, reflecting the divine substance of Spirit" (pp. 301, 468).

IN MEMORIAM

Of my daughter, Gladys Dierking, who passed away 15 years ago today, March 13, 1933. Sad and sudden was the call Of one so dearly loved by all. A bitter grief, a shock severe, It was to part with one so dear. Deep in my heart she is living yet, I loved her too much to ever forget. Father, Henry J. Dierking, DP along nicely since his release from the hospital, visited in the city recently.

A special meeting is in session every Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the firemen's room and all interested members are welcome.

The Easter egg hunt is set to go. Cooperation of the Chamber of Commerce and our Ladies Auxiliary is assured. Date of the hunt is Saturday, March 27 at 2 p. m. and includes children from 2 years to the 8th grade of all schools in Arlington Heights. See local papers for all details on hunt.

Ordinance

An ordinance amending Section 3 of an ordinance to regulate the sale of alcoholic liquors in the Village of Arlington Heights, County of Cook and State of Illinois, passed by the Board of Trustees of said Village on the 26th day of February, 1934, be and the same is hereby amended so that the last paragraph of said Section 3 of said ordinance shall be read as follows:

"Before any license shall be issued on such application the applicant shall furnish a bond to said village with two sureties who shall be residents of the Village of Arlington Heights, and each of whom shall be able to schedule real estate owned by him in said village of a market value of twice the penalty of such bond over and above any encumbrances, taxes, assessments, homestead rights, and liens of any character. Such proposed surety shall file with the local Liquor Control Commissioner a schedule setting forth the street address, as well as the legal description of the real estate owned by him; the names of all persons interested therein; whether or not the same is improved; if improved the nature of the improvements thereon; whether or not the same is encumbered, and if encumbered the amount and nature of the encumbrance; whether or not the same is subject to homestead rights, listing any unpaid taxes except current taxes and unpaid special assessments, and any other liens, if any; the approximate estimated value of such property over and above encumbrances, and such other information as the local Liquor Control Commissioner may request to aid him in determining the sufficiency of the bond. Such schedule shall be sworn to by the proposed surety. In lieu of such personal surety such applicant may furnish bond with a corporate surety, such corporate surety to be a surety company regularly authorized by the local Liquor Control Commissioner. Such bond shall provide against any violation by the principal, his agents or employees of any of the terms of this ordinance or any ordinances, rules and regulations now in force or which may hereafter be in force in said Village affecting the operation of such business. The penalty of such bond shall be $1000.00."

Section 2. This Ordinance shall be in full force and effect from and after its passage, approval and publication, and shall be known as Ordinance No. 704.

Passed this 15th day of March, 1948.
FORREST F. DAVIS,
Village Clerk.
Approved this 15th day of March, 1948.
ALBERT W. GOEDKE,

Panthers win last game of season

The Arlington Heights Panthers ended their basketball season with a 20-13 win last Saturday at the Presbyterian gym. They met the Redcombs who really played a terrific game despite the fact that they lost. High scorer for the Panthers was John Eakins, with 8 points. Bob Thompson made 5 points, Dick McAuliffe, 3, Craig Baldwin and Donald Niemeyer, 2 apiece. The Redcomb scorers were Ernie Lindstrom, 5, Bob Dotts, 4, and Ray Stockwell, 4. The Redcombs had the Panthers guessing in the first half, but they recovered in the last quarter to win the game. The Panthers ended the season with four wins and one loss.

Puppet Show This Saturday

The "Legend of Sleepy Hollow," the title of the play to be given March 20, South school, Arlington Heights, by the Cole Marionettes, is the story of a traveling school teacher in an early New Amsterdam Dutch community. The curtain opens on a typical school room in an early colonial setting. Ichabod Crane, a timid gangling teacher, enters and finds a caricature of himself on the blackboard. The next scene is also laid in the school room, it is evening, the choir is rehearsing, but very badly. The third scene finds poor Ichabod proposing to Katrina Van Tassel, while her guests are enjoying the square dancing.

Ichabod leaves and so does the headless horseman, whereby hangs the tale. The second part of the program features a circus act, in which Maurie, the puppet (inspired by the real Maurie of Ringling Bros. Circus) is seated on a dancing keg, which Maurie does not know dances. Maurie shares the spotlight with Bobo, a lifelike elephant, and a Model T Ford with amazing talents. Performances begin at 1:30 p. m. and 3:00 p. m. This program is sponsored by the Arlington Heights P. T. A.

Girl Scout News

Troop 7 of the Arlington Hts. Girl Scouts received the following letter from J. M. Stewart, General Supt., U. S. Dept. of Interior, Navajo Service, Window Rock, Ariz.:

Dear Girl Scouts:
Because of many generous contributions being received from people like yourself, who are anxious to assist in providing for the relief of needy Navajos, it has become impossible with the existing clerical staff for us to write a personal letter to each participant acknowledging the donation and advising you with regard to distribution of same. Therefore this letter has been devised, but we want each donor to know that his donation has been received and that our personal appreciation in behalf of the Navajos goes with each acknowledgment.

Your package addressed to me and which was received January 22, has been placed with other items for distribution to needy Navajo Indians.

Sincerely,
J. M. Stewart,
General Supt.

Realtors hear about veteran loans

At their regular monthly dinner meeting on the 2nd Thursday of each month, the last one March 11 at the Pantry, Park Ridge, the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors, had as their guest speaker Major J. B. Hunter of the Veterans Administration, Chicago. Major Hunter is assistant loan officer there.

Major Hunter gave some very interesting facts about veterans loans already made and of the many yet to be made. After his talk a round table discussion took place among the large turn out present, particularly about where veterans could make loans at present, and under what circumstances.

The Northwest Suburban board comprises Park Ridge, Niles, Des Plaines, Mt. Prospect, Prospect Heights, Arlington Hts., Palatine and Barrington.

Patricia Miller and Donald Karns marry

A double ring ceremony united Miss Patricia Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy J. Miller, Denver, Colo., formerly of Arlington Heights, and Donald Karns of Ames, Iowa, in marriage Wednesday evening, March 17. The wedding was held at the Collegiate Methodist church, Ames, Iowa, with Rev. G. S. Nichols officiating.

Jack Williams sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the services, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. Clendenin. Candelight and floral decorations lent a solemn air to the ceremony, which began at 7:30 p. m.

The bride was gown in an ice blue satin dress, styled with fitted bodice, having v-neckline, long sleeves ending in points, and a full skirt with a long train. She wore a double, ice blue fingertip veil that was fastened to

Acting as maid of honor was Miss Irene Meyer, who wore a shimmering pink rayon dress, fashioned with short puff sleeves, v-neckline, and long full skirt. Her bouquet consisted of five hanging blue hydrangeas. Bridesmaids were Lois Neubauer, Ruth Royer, Dorothy Buchheit and Mary Louise Lauer, all friends of the bride. They were dressed identically to the maid of honor and carried spray bouquets centered with three blue hydrangeas.

Cheron Karns, niece of the bridegroom, served as flower girl and was dressed as the bride's other attendants.

Best man for the bridegroom was Worth Karns, his brother, with Eugene Butler, Clifford Satre, Robert Schoger, Robert Wainright and Norman Snyder acting as ushers.

Mrs. Miller chose to wear an aqua dinner dress trimmed in gold, for her daughter's wedding. Her corsage was of cream colored baby orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Sheldon Munn hotel, Ames, Mr. and Mrs. Karns went to Duluth, Minn., for their honeymoon, and plan to remain there six months, when they will return to Ames to complete college.

The bride attended grade school and part of the ninth grade in Arlington Heights, moving then with her family to Long Beach, Calif., where she completed high school. She has completed three and one-half years of college at Ames.

Mr. Karns attended grade and high school in Pleasantville, Ia., and will finish his college course at Ames in March, 1949.

Among the guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Wilke and family of Arlington Heights.

AHTS adult party features orchestra, square dance caller

Plans were completed this week by the adult evening council of the Arlington Heights township high school for the semester's end party Tuesday, March 30, at 8 p. m. at the high school auditorium.

The party will include an amateur show, an exhibit of adult education projects and a square dance.

A highlight of the amateur show will be the high school barbershop quartet and a portrayal of Al Jolson. An orchestra and a square dance caller have been employed for the dancing part of the program.

Refreshments will be served by the home economics classes of the high school.

All persons enrolled in the adult classes this semester or the first semester are invited to attend, and each person may bring a guest.

Arlington Heights Camp Fire Girls have been selected out of groups of Camp Fire Girls in nine states to post the colors at the Nine States conference, to be held at the Congress hotel, Chicago, April 9.

The girls feel that being asked to post the colors is quite an honor, in as much as Camp Fire has only been active in Arlington Heights for the past two years.

Sylvester Greschner, commander of the VFW post in Arlington Heights, is instructing the girls on how to post colors. He will accompany the girls on that day and will be in uniform. The girls will be attired in navy blue skirts, white middie, red ties, boleros and blue hats.

There will be a Camp Fire doughnut sale in Arlington Hts. for the first time this year, the date of which will be announced later.

Miss Harriet Roney is the Camp Fire leader.

Banana Cup Cakes

Sliced bananas show off their good looks in these tempting banana cup cakes made with enriched flour for better food value.

Fruit variety is limited at this season so let's find different ways for using the "dependables" on the market. There are more ways than one to eat bananas. For proof, we offer these cup cakes with a real banana flavor, their fluffy frosting decked with two slices of the fruit. The cup cakes are made by the usual cake method, with the flour mixture added to the creamed mixture alternately with mashed bananas and milk. Measure ingredients carefully, sifting flour once before measuring. Preserve the golden yellow of the cut bananas in the topping by dipping them in lemon or other citrus juice.

Besides good eating, the cup cakes boast of good food value supplied by the enriched flour with its protein, iron, and B-vitamins. The recipe makes a sufficient quantity to serve at a casual afternoon tea, or for after-school snack and dinner dessert.

BANANA CUP CAKES

2 cups sifted enriched flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup shortening
1 cup sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 teaspoon vanilla extract
1 cup mashed banana
2 tablespoons milk
1/2 cup chopped nuts

Sift together flour, baking powder, soda and salt. Cream together shortening and sugar until light and fluffy. Add eggs, mixing well. Add orange rind, lemon rind and vanilla extract. Add flour mixture to creamed mixture alternately with bananas and milk. Fold in nuts. Fill greased three-inch muffin pans two-thirds full. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 25 minutes. Yield: About 14 three-inch cup cakes.

Guitar, dance act win Saturday's amateur show

First prize in Saturday's amateur show at the Arlington Theater went to Gilbert Haas, whose guitar playing brought him fame. Charlene Hagberg won second prize with her dance act, while third prize went to Alice Olson, who played a piano solo.

This Saturday's show will bring five more amateur acts consisting of LeRoy Fredricks, concertina; Lenaze Gabel, dancer; Audrey Jean Armstrong, piano accordion; Lynn Cox and Sharon Wischstedt, dance duet; and Harold Slottag, piano solo.

A special children's show, "The Adventures of Huckleberry Finn," starring Mickey Rooney, will precede the amateur acts. Doors will open at 12:45, with the movie beginning at 1:30 p. m. All seats will be twenty-five cents, including tax.

Beginning next week Sieburg Drug Co. will donate the first prize for that week and the three succeeding weeks, with Virgil Horath's Shell Service Station donating second place prizes for the same length of time. Baylor's Firestone and Don Knapp donated prizes for the first series of shows.

Application blanks for entering the amateur shows can still be obtained at Baylor's Firestone, North and South schools, and at the Arlington Theater. All youngsters are urged to display their talents at one of these amateur programs.

Dolores Koepl given surprise bridal shower

More than 40 guests gathered at the home of Mrs. J. Wortz in Chicago Thursday evening to honor Miss Dolores Koepl, Arlington Heights, at a surprise bridal shower. Mrs. William Edberg of Arlington Heights was co-hostess at the shower.

Miss Koepl will become the bride of Robert Bentz at the St. Peter Ev. Lutheran church, Arlington Heights, April 3.

Newcomers praise Arlington Heights and Mount Prospect

"This is the first time away from home for both of us," Jane Olsen, 712 S. Elmhurst, Mt. Prospect, told the inquiring reporter, "and we couldn't have picked a better place than Mt. Prospect."

THE OLSENS ARE FROM Tinley Park, Ill., which is the home town for both, and they moved to Mt. Prospect February 1.

The main reason for their coming here was that Mr. Olsen, who is an engineer at the WGN transmitter at Roselle, had to travel to work one hour each day while the Olsens lived in Tinley Park.

"NOW IT JUST TAKES him twenty minutes to get to his job," Mrs. Olsen remarked, "and we both have more time to do other things we've always had to postpone."

Mr. and Mrs. Olsen love music, especially the piano, and say that music is their mutual hobby. Mrs. Olsen's brother, Arthur DeVol Jr., who auditioned recently in Chicago, is a lyric tenor and has been studying voice for six years.

SINCE MR. OLSEN IS A radio engineer, he built an AM and FM radio set for their home, but "as yet it's still sprawled out over the spare room until we can get a cabinet for it."

The month of March will be a busy one for Mrs. Olsen since there are birthdays of eleven relatives and friends to remember. "Buying cards and gifts is just about all the hobby I can take care of for awhile," she added.

Mrs. Edwin Dahm, right, 801 Princeton, Arlington Heights, told the reporter that they had bought a lot for a home in Arlington Heights even before they were married in June, 1947.

"HOWEVER," FLORENCE Dahm added, "it would have taken too long to wait to build on that lot, so we traded that piece of land for our present home."

Mr. and Mrs. Dahm are from Des Plaines, where Edwin Dahm and his brother operate a greenhouse for carnations.

IN HER NEW house into which they moved in October, 1947, Mrs. Dahm has a brand new stainless steel kitchen sink which her father built for the couple.

The couple has a pet black cocker spaniel they call "Bonnie." Aside from this cooperative hobby, they both like spectator sports and are avid Cub fans.

Eleanor Krueger, John Kohl are married

Miss Eleanor Krueger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krueger, Golf road, Mt. Prospect, was united in marriage Saturday to John Kohl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Kohl of Chicago. The ceremony was held at the St. John Evangelical Lutheran church, Elk Grove, with the Rev. F. L. Gehrs officiating.

Two baskets of carnations decorated the altar before which the young couple repeated their solemn vows of marriage. During the ceremony Robert Langguth sang, "Oh Perfect Love," and the "Marriage Hymn," accompanied by Paul Meeske at the organ.

Miss Krueger entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She wore a traditional white satin gown, styled with fitted bodice, having marquisette inset at round neckline, and drop shoulder effect, and a full skirt gathered in a bustle at the back and ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil was bordered with lace. The bride carried a bouquet of gardenias and white roses.

Maid of honor was Miss Lorraine Carlson, cousin of the bride. She had an orchid taffeta dress, fashioned like the bride's, and carried a bouquet of yellow carnations set in an

Stork Feathers

Proud parents of a son are Mr. and Mrs. Nelburn Juliar, 315 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights. The infant, who was born March 15 at the Evanston hospital, tipped the scales at 6 pounds 8 ounces. He is the Juliar's first child, and the eighth great grandchild of Mrs. Vanderwerker, who lives with the Juliar.

Announcing the arrival of their first child, a son, are Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Bass, Dundee road, Arlington Heights. The baby was born at the Northwestern hospital, Des Plaines, March 11, and weighed in at 9 pounds 4 ounces. Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Logan Bass and maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. John Page, all of Arlington Heights.

ust Krueger.

A reception for 300 guests was held at Eagle hall in Des Plaines immediately following the ceremony. The members of the bridal party were dinner guests at the bride's home on the Friday evening before the wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Kohl are now honeymooning at Summeret Lodge, located at Williams Bay, Lake Geneva, Wis.

Board Bill Loss

It is estimated that last year's board bill for the European corn borer cost American farmers at least $37,700,000, of which $2,061,000 represents damage to sweet corn.

OES observes past matron-patron night

The presiding officers of 1948, Bessie and Paul Geisel, planned a delightful evening March 11, in celebration of the eighteenth anniversary of the Institution of the Arlington Heights Chapter No. 992, Order of Eastern Star.

Guest officers in the East were the Jr. past matron and patron, Emily Schumacher and Park Allen. An escort was formed in their honor by those who had served them as officers last year. Each was presented with a gift from their officers as well as flowers and a gift from their Chapter. The soloist also greeted them in song.

Those serving in other stations as guest officers were: Agnes Olson, associate matron; Harold Hastings, associate patron; Flor-

The guest of honor for the evening was Myrtle L. Frey, a grand lecturer of Arlington Heights chapter and the instructor. She was presented with flowers and also greeted in song.

Visitors present included Doris and Reynolds Golterman, worthy matron and patron of Palatine chapter; Atheline and George Chenoweth, worthy matron and patron of Mountain Lake chapter of New Jersey; and Nellie M. Finck, a past matron of Waynesville chapter. Several charter members were present and escorted to the East.

The regular order of business followed after which the chapter was favored with interesting remarks by the guests in the East. Tasty refreshments were served at beautifully decorated tables, done in green and white by Dorothy Voss and her committee.

Each guest officer received a gift from the chapter and the worthy matron and patron. After refreshments a social time was enjoyed in the dining room. A coin collection taken at this time was donated to the Cancer Fund.

In keeping with Holy week, a dispensation has been requested to dispense with the March 25 meeting.

History of American music revealed to DAR

An interesting program centered upon the history of American music was presented by Mrs. Marion Grigsby at the D.A.R. guest meeting Thursday evening.

Mrs. Grigsby gave historical data about many American songs and composers. Mrs. J. A. Zimmerman sang Stephen Foster's first song, "Open Thy Lattice, Love," and "Ring De Banjo," accompanied by Mrs. Ira Parker at the piano.

A barbershop quartette, costumed accordingly, composed of Mesdames Daniels, Stockdale, Zimmermann and Lussow, was an unusual feature of the musical program. They rendered a "Chantry" sung by the early boatmen called, "Blow the Man Down." "Bicycle Built for Two" was then sung in true barbershop fashion, but the most popular number was the melodramatic rendition of "She is More to be Pitted, than Censored."

Hostesses at this affair were Mrs. A. J. Malley and Mrs. Cassandra Fay, both of Palatine. Mrs. Harold Bingham and Mrs. Charles H. Mills presided at the tea and coffee service.

Leaving this Thursday for Peoria to attend the fifty-second annual State Conference of Illinois Daughters at Pere Marquette, will be Mrs. Kenneth Gregory, Eli Skinner's Chapter regent, and Mrs. Frank Fender of Dundee, official delegate for this chapter. Mrs. Harold Bingham of Wheeling and Mrs. Milton Daniels of Arlington Heights will attend as alternates.

Included in this party will be Nancy Nichols of Arlington Heights Township high school, and Elaine Schwolow of Palatine Township high school, who both received this year's DAR good citizenship awards at their respective schools.

The conference closes Friday evening with a state banquet for delegates and guests, highlighting as guest speaker, Dean E. Smith, who for many years represented the Standard Oil company in Burma and China.

Activities about Arlington Heights

John Wolf is convalescing from his recent illness at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Bozee, 124 S. Vail.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burnier, accompanied by their daughter Jeannine, and four of her girl friends, Barbara Tichy, Peggy Koelker, Pat Boyles, and Mary Lou Sander, attended Jeanette McDonald's concert at the Civic opera house March 7. Following the concert they all went to the Victorian room for dinner.

Mesdames Paul Geisel, William Milligan, and Al Jasper attended the birthday and past officers night at the Palatine OES chapter Friday evening. Mrs. Jasper served as Ruth that evening.

Rev. and Mrs. L. V. Stephan entertained the members of the Baganz Trio Sunday evening following their musical concert at St. Peter Lutheran church.

Jean Meyer, sophomore, and Mary Morrow, freshman, both students at the University of Colorado, Boulder, will arrive home today, Thursday, for a week's spring vacation.

Mrs. Arthur Wolf, who has been in the hospital since last October, is now home, though still confined to her bed. The Wolf's had their baby son, who was born January 28, christened Kenneth Edward, last Sunday by Rev. L. V. Stephan. Sponsors for the baby were Mr. and Mrs. George Bozee and Wilbert Niebur.

Michele Fairman and her grandmother, Mrs. Frank Sachs, with whom she lives, both celebrated their birthdays last week. Michele's birthday was March 11 and her grandmother's was March 12. A few friends dropped in on both days to help celebrate the birthdays.

Week end guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Glow were Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Roberts of Alma, Mich.

Mrs. William Leehring entertained the "500" club at a St.

Patrick's luncheon and card party Wednesday.

Mrs. Helen Hahnfeldt and children, Blanche and William, of Prairie View, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Engles.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlton Stacey and son, Warren, of Arcadia, California, will arrive Saturday at the home of Mrs. Stacey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Henken. Mr. Stacey will spend the week end here and then leave for New York. Mrs. Stacey and Warren will remain here for the present.

Mrs. C. A. Hughes entertained the Farm Advisor's wives Monday afternoon while the Advisors were attending a meeting at the Farm Bureau office. Later they all enjoyed dinner at The Pantry in Park Ridge, after which they returned to the Hughes' home to spend the balance of the evening.

Fred Lorenzen, who has been quite ill at home the past several months, is now undergoing treatment at the Evanston hospital.

Scribe Mary Jane Bradley of Brownie Troop 10 stated that the girls learned a new song and started on kitten purses at their last meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Ryden, with their daughter, Pat, will attend the Ice Capades at the Chicago arena Sunday. They are attending the show in celebration of Pat's birthday, which was Wednesday.

Mrs. B. A. Davis, Mrs. B. G. Baxter and Mrs. F. C. Utterback spent Monday shopping in Elgin.

The tenth birthday of Wanda Eakins was celebrated with a party for several of her friends Sunday afternoon. Highlight of Wanda's birthday was the new bicycle she received from her parents.

Mrs. H. J. Carr entertained her book review club Tuesday afternoon. "The Last Billionaire" was reviewed by Mrs. Warren Fellingham.

Spending the week end at home from his studies at the University of Illinois was Bill Stockdale, who spent the time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Don Stockdale.

Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Utterback were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Evans and son, Charles, of Northbrook.

Mrs. Albert Kost will entertain her bridge club Thursday afternoon with a dessert luncheon preceding the bridge game.

Mrs. L. V. Stephan attended the regular monthly meeting of Lutheran Pastor's Wives society in the Republic building, Chicago, Friday afternoon. The group enjoyed a demonstration given by "Agatha," the foremost flower designer of the Real Art Flower Co.

A guest Monday and Tuesday at the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Carr was Mrs. W. G. Franke of Chicago.

Nuveen for congress committee formed in Arlington Heights

The candidacy of John Nuveen, Jr. for Congress from the 13th District is being promoted by a committee of Republican voters in Arlington Heights. At an informal preliminary meeting, Charles H. Wilson was selected as chairman.

The committee plans call for an effort to stimulate interest in the Republican primary election April 13. The redistricting bill passed by Congress last year places Arlington Heights in the new 13th District, and means that we must select a new Representative in Congress. Since this is predominantly a Republican district, the voters will in fact select the new Congressman at the primary election.

Mr. Wilson points out that the new 13th District is one of the very finest in the country from the standpoint of the intelligence and civic interest of its residents. To adequately represent this type of citizen, Mr. Wilson stated, it is highly important that we have a man of character, intelligence and ability. "In these days of mounting crises—both foreign and domestic, it is vital that we send to Washington only the best brains available. We are indeed fortunate to have as a candidate a man of Mr. Nuveen's qualifications, who has proven himself as a civic leader and who can be trusted to meet with intelligence and energy the challenging problems Congress must face during the coming years."

Mr. Nuveen lives in Kenilworth and is a partner of John Nuveen and Company, municipal bonds. He is a director of the Chicago & North Western Railway Co., and the Illinois Chamber of Commerce; president of the Chicago Sunday Evening club; vice president of the Church Federation of Greater Chicago. He is a veteran of World War I, and during World War II he served as regional director of the War Production Board. He received the Chicago Alumni Citation for Public Service in 1945.

'Circus Daze' dance at Rolling Green April 3

"Circus Daze," an informal spring dance sponsored by the Junior Woman's club of Arlington Heights, will be held April 3, at the Rolling Green Country club.

Don Kent's orchestra will feature the dance music, which will begin at 9:00 p. m. and last till 1:00 a. m. The general public is invited to attend.

Tickets are three dollars per couple and may be purchased from any Junior Woman's club member or at the door.

Brownie Troop 16

Brownie Troop 16 of Arlington Heights visited the Bensenville orphanage last Thursday. Mrs. Clinton Rosene, Mrs. Harvey Shumacker, and Mrs. Victor Bedingfield accompanied them. They attended a party with girls in their own age group and all had a good time.

Jane Bedingfield, scribe.

A family birthday party was held Friday night in honor of Arthur Schoepke's birthday. It was held at his home, N. Vail avenue.

Week end guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Schoepke were Mrs. Herman Winkelhake Jr. and children, Karon Lyn and Kenneth, of Schaumburg.

Marvin Prellberg, accompanied by a few of his friends, attended the Stag basketball game Saturday. Marvin had the good fortune of winning a $5.00 merchandise ticket in a lucky program number contest at the game.

Consolidation

more voters, or upon recommendation of the Survey Committee. In a unit district the board must provide free transportation to pupils who reside at a distance from any school.

The other important amendment provides that all petitions for any change in territory whatsoever must first be presented to the Survey Committee for its suggestions. The committee has no power to grant or deny the prayer of such petitions.

The procedure after the hearings by the Survey Committee are completed is as follows: Upon the completion of the hearings the committee must prepare a final report to be filed with the County Superintendent of School on or before June 1, 1948. The superintendent will furnish a copy of such final report to at least each school board member in the county, and the report shall be available for public inspection in the office of the County Superintendent.

In the event the final report recommends the reorganization or change in the boundaries of any school district, then the question as recommended by the committee must be submitted to the legal voters residing in the district or territory at an election to be ordered by the County Superintendent within nine months after the final report was filed with him.

Area educators

meet at Mount Prospect school

The Arlington Area Educators council held a meeting at the Mt. Prospect public school March 11. Dr. Millard Bell, superintendent of the Wilmette schools, was the guest speaker. His topic was "The School and the Community." Refreshments were served through the courtesy of the school board and PTA of Mt. Prospect.

A nominating committee consisting of representatives of the Arlington area schools appointed candidates for the election to be held at the next meeting. Those nominated are: president, Mrs. C. G. Gallagher, Mt. Prospect public school; and Miss Lucy Driscoll, Arlington Heights public school; vice president, Martin Hasz, St. Paul Lutheran school of Mt. Prospect; and Alvin L. Kulie, Arlington Heights high school; secretary, Miss Virginia Weber, Mt. Prospect public school; and Miss Florence Swane, Arlington Heights public school; treasurer, O. A. Kolb, St. Peter Lutheran school of Arlington Heights; and Mrs. C. Radcliffe, Arlington Heights public school.

MEMBERS of the nominating committee were: chairman, Mrs. Zetto Faukner of Arlington Heights high school; Miss Marian Elliott, Arlington Heights public school; Mrs. Gladys Ackley, Mt. Prospect public school; Elmer Jackisch, St. Paul Lutheran school, Mt. Prospect; A. W. Oberman, St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights; and Mrs. Mabel Hinnenberg, rural schools.

The next meeting of the Arlington Area Educators council will be held Thursday evening, April 8, at South school, Arlington Heights. The guest speaker will be Charles Goetchel, exchange teacher from England, who teaches at Crystal Lake.

PTA exhibits and talks

The March Parent Teacher association program was opened with a colorful flag ceremony presented by Scouts of Troop 32 and Cub Scouts of Pack 232 of Arlington Heights.

Stan Huntington, Scout executive of the Northwest Suburban Council, introduced the officers of Pack 232 and Troop 32, and presented the charters for the two organizations to Mrs. Richard Frasier, PTA president, who in turn presented them to George LaRo, Pack chairman, and Vernon Sturm, committee chairman.

Mrs. Earl Cox, program chairman, presented Ralph Clabaugh, superintendent of schools, who introduced the teachers in charge of the program.

MUSIC DIRECTOR. Harold Brunt, showed those attending a typical music class, using his third grade pupils, who played a safety song on their newly acquired tonettes. They wrote the music, filling in bars, rests, repeats and all. As a finale ten pupils played the melody as the rest sang and directed.

Mrs. Ring, speech correctionist, said speech defects fall in three main categories, baby talk, pathological disorders, or physical defects. Games, songs, pantomime and rhythm, are used to develop the coordinations essential to good speech habits. She also stressed the point that many bad speech habits are the reflection of deeper problems which require whole-hearted cooperation from the parents.

The object of the art program, as pointed out by Mrs. Kay Campbell, is to teach students to meet life with a spirit of adventure.

ton Heights high school; Miss Marian Elliott, Arlington Heights public school; Mrs. Gladys Ackley, Mt. Prospect public school; Elmer Jackisch, St. Paul Lutheran school, Mt. Prospect; A. W. Oberman, St. Peter Lutheran school, Arlington Heights; and Mrs. Mabel Hinnenberg, rural schools.

The next meeting of the Arlington Area Educators council will be held Thursday evening, April 8, at South school, Arlington Heights. The guest speaker will be Charles Goetchel, exchange teacher from England, who teaches at Crystal Lake.

Fine performance of 'Passion Play' at Arlington high

The "Passion Play," a puppet performance, is being presented March 22, at 8:00 p. m. at the Arlington Heights high school auditorium. Olga and Martin Stevens, who operate the Stevens marionette theater, are world famous for this unique and splendid theatrical production.

Inasmuch as the Passion Play covers the last week in the life of Christ, it is especially fitting that the community will have the opportunity to see this dramatic performance during Holy Week. It is being offered as a community service by the Parent-Teacher association of the Mt. Prospect public school and residents of neighboring towns are also invited to share this experience.

Older children will appreciate this production, but it is suggested that small children are apt to become restless through their lack of understanding and distract the adults near by.

Members of the Mt. Prospect PTA board have tickets, or they may be had from Mrs. Eugene Martin, Mt. Prospect 1068.

Auxiliary notes

Those who attended the celebration of the twenty-ninth birthday of the Legion last Saturday evening at Legion hall, expressed themselves as having enjoyed a delicious supper and the entertainment that followed.

Tuesday afternoon 12 members of the Auxiliary enjoyed a tasty luncheon at the home of the president, Mrs. Merle Holtz. Mrs. Holtz is a gracious hostess and a born cook and there is never a dull moment at a meeting in her home.

It is time to make reservations for the ninth district dinner honoring the department president. For information call Mrs. Mae Wisersky.

August Bestmanns
celebrate 25th
wedding anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. August Bestmann, Palatine road, Arlington Heights, celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary Saturday, March 6 at a reception for 350 guests.
The actual date of their wedding anniversary is March 3, but the party was held on Saturday at Eagle hall in Des Plaines.
At the beginning of the evening, the guests exchanged partners in a series of square dances. The celebrating couple danced to the strains of the "Old Gray Mare", after which Mr. Bestmann bestowed a "marriage kiss" on his wife and picked her up and whirled her around, while the guests cheered and applauded.
Later, a grand march was led by the anniversary pair.
A four-tier white frosted wedding cake with a silver number 25 ornament was the centerpiece of a buffet table. The centerpiece was completed by a vase of red roses on either side of the cake.
Relatives from Michigan, Wisconsin, Maple Park and Rock Island, Ill., attended the anniversary party.
The next day the Bestmanns held an open house at their home for the examination of gifts. Refreshments were served.
The Bestmanns have lived at their present location for 23 years.

Sophie Firnbach
celebrates 84th year

The Little Flower club of Arlington Heights had as their guest of honor last Thursday, Mrs. Sophie Firnbach, who was celebrating her eighty-fourth birthday. A dinner in her honor was held at the Tally-Ho in Park Ridge.
Those attending the dinner were Mesdames Henry Firnbach, A. Goedke, Donald Goedke, Andrew Hinzberg, Ed Johnson, W. McKaig, R. J. Rizzi, M. Saar, R. Schoppmann, W. Wagner, and Ed Weidner, and Misses Myrtle and Clara Lauterburg.
Following the dinner the group returned to the M. Saar home for cards and birthday cake. Happy birthday was sung by the group for Mrs. Firnbach.

Has 86th birthday

Mrs. Carl Dueball, who resides with her daughter, Mrs. Emma Kosmin, 1 E. Davis street, Arlington Heights, had her eighty-sixth birthday March 10. Children, grandchildren, and one great grandchild were present to help celebrate the occasion.

Tells of German life in in U.S. and British zones

Mrs. Olav Maseng, sister-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Trygve Maseng, 502 S. Main st., Mt. Prospect, is visiting in the United States after spending a year and one half in U. S. occupied Germany. She was a guest at the Trygve Maseng home for a few days in the latter part of February.
Both Mrs. Maseng and her husband, who holds a position as deputy director of commerce and industry in the bi-partite American and British Control office, have had many interesting experiences in seeing a conquered nation try to rise to its feet. Mr. Maseng's part has been to assist in restoring the economy and in putting Germany in a position once more to play a constructive part in world affairs.
The Germans, a stoical, poverty stricken people, are slow in restoration although acute shortages of necessary building materials and political restrictions, rather than the energy of the Germans can be blamed for that.
POLITICAL STRIFE is everywhere in Germany. The many political parties are trying to outdo each other, each trying to gain full control of Germany's government. Lack of good leadership at the present time prevents any one party from coming into control.
Food is rationed, allowing only 1,550 calories of legal food. Thus the German people are constantly on the move, carrying bags of varying sizes, all hoping to return home with some choice article of food. They scrounge the countryside, exchanging a choice bit of food which is in excess of their needs, or a treasured household item, for butter and eggs in another place. Many deal in the black market.
CONDITIONS are good in the American and British zone of occupation, and those living in these zones are considered lucky. Commissaries and "PX's" serve the Americans who are living in Germany with food. The Americans are issued "occupation money," which is made of paper, to use in purchasing their needs. They cannot deal with Germans for necessities and always must consult their list of "verboden" merchandise before they buy anything from a German. It is a serious offense for a German to be found with occupation money in his possession.
France fears a strong Germany and therefore refuses to contribute to her reconstruction. Germans are subjected to harsh rule from the Russians. While the Americans and British government officials are fed by their own governments, French and Russian occupants take their food from Germany, thus considerably lowering the amount of food for Germans.
RESPONSIBILITY for the war is not acknowledged by any German. Mrs. Maseng stated, when asked whether they feel hostile toward Americans, "outwardly no. They are usually polite and appear grateful for the many favors they accept from Americans. There is a feeling, not openly voiced, that they resent our prosperity."
Where one German may want to do an act of kindness for an American, another may resent the American and do nothing to help him. Mrs. Maseng told about being on a train once when a kindly German woman urged a young German man to move over a bit so that Mrs. Maseng could sit down. He refused to move, looked her over with an insolent gaze and said, "No, she has shoes, let her stand." When they left the train the German woman tried to help Mrs. Maseng with her baggage as if to make up for her neighbor's rudeness.
GERMANS don't have loyalty even for each other. If informing on a neighbor will bring them material gains they do not hesitate to do so. They have been trained the State comes first.
Mrs. Maseng stated that she liked the children of Germany the best. They are well brought up, and speak fairly good English. Scarcity of books, papers and writing materials make schooling difficult. Even the Americans with children must have them travel as much as 30 miles a day to attend school.
MEDICAL SERVICES, too, are poor and doctors attend you only in case of very serious illness. Such a thing as a medical check-up as a preventative measure would be unheard of in present day Germany.
The Masengs had the good fortune to travel extensively in Europe. A visit to Mr. Maseng's family in Norway highlighted their travels. In Norway they found living delightful. Native thrift has made recovery quick in Norway, and while food is still rationed, everyone has plenty.

Cancer benefit nets over $1,200

Thru the efforts of Arlington Heights Woman's club the cancer research organizations will receive approximately $1200 from Arlington Heights.
Total receipts of the "Parade of Stars" radio show Friday night approached the $1600 from which had to be deducted the Government tax and other minor expenses.
The show of shows which brought outstanding radio talent to Arlington Heights was made possible by Mrs. Paul Koenig whose acquaintance with the personalities in the radio field secured the donation of the talent.
The total receipts approached $1600, a record-breaking amount for any benefit show ever given in Arlington Heights.
"We are happy to have had a part in bringing the radio personalities to Arlington Heights and that the general public was so generous in their purchase of tickets and other donations," stated Mrs. Carl H. Ewert, 827 S. Mitchell, president of the Woman's Club. The use of a grand piano for the artists was made possible by village officials and employees. To these and others who aided in the cause, the woman's club says "thank you."
The audience, in addition to purchasing tickets placed over $300 in the containers passed around at the show.
Fran Allison, "Aunt Fanny" on NBC, and who was to have been one of the radio personalities featured on the local show, was unable to be present that evening since she was taken to a hospital for surgery earlier that day. Her letter of regret to the club was read to the audience at the show.

Despite the fact that Duchess of Marrae, Boxer dog owned by the Ray A. Peters, 635 N. Highland, Arlington Heights, combated a siege of poisoning last January, she successfully gave birth to 10 puppies March 16.
She has six boys and four girls, all of whom are doing fine. The usual litter for Boxers is from one to five puppies, so Duchess really outdid herself. Proud "papa" is champion Lil Abner of Highspring.
Duchess was one of the seven dogs poisoned on the North side of Arlington Heights last January.

Just two back for Bison '48 track hopes

Coach John Trapp has turned his after-school attentions to the Bensenville track squad this year, though none of the boys have been able to work outside thus far. Anyone attempting to stand in the lower halls of Bensenville high is taking his life in his hands these days as local tracksters limber up preparatory to going outside when and if good weather presents itself.

Even the upstairs hall at the school finds hurdlers in action, the walls echoing with shouts and feet as they pound down and around the improvised "cinder path."

BENSENVILLE has just two lettermen back this year from a track squad that looked far from impressive last year. The Bisons finished in bottom spot last year.

'Faculty trims 'A club', 52-40

Arlington Heights high school faculty took the measure of the A-club five Tuesday night in the awards-benefit game in the local gym, 52-40. In the preliminary, the Junior All-Star girls beat the Sophomore All-Star aggregation, 29-19.

The A-club grabbed an early lead the first quarter but the teachers gained ground and led at halftime, 23-19. With the regulars doing plenty of scoring for the faculty, Gibson's 16 points being high, the men won out before a capacity crowd.

BELL NOTCHED 13 points for the winners, with Conrad gaining ten, Creamer eight, and Larsen two. Among the reserves Coach Grace garnered one bucket, with teacher physician Carr sinking one charity.

Other reserves seeing action included Waters, Lowry, Kulieke, Bryson, Kemman and Knoepfel. Referees were Phil Roche and Wally Beckman.

Leading the boys' squad offensively were Lew Draper and August Krause, who each swished the hoops for ten tallies. Record now stands 2-1, faculty, for three games.

Ewell seeks Chicago relays dash crown

Henry Norwood "Barney" Ewell, the hardy perennial of the straightaway, is coming back to take one last crack at his second Chicago Daily News Relays' sprint title on March 20 at the Chicago Stadium.

Champion in 1945, Barney could do no better than third place in 1946. He was third again last year when the University of Illinois uncovered a winner in little Bill Mathis.

Despite his 30 years, Ewell has lost little, if any, of the speed that enabled him to win the National Collegiate 100- and 220-yard sprints in 1940 while attending Penn State.

In his first major outing this year, he was second to Ed Conwell in the 50-yard sprint of the Philadelphia Inquirer Games. He hit his stride in the Boston K. of C. Meet with a victory in the 50, and won the Boston A. A. 50-yard sprint in the excellent time of .05.4.

MAC SAYS
BY GERALD McELROY

The "Sweet Sixteen" has been selected by an elimination of some 800 basketball teams and will put on the annual state basketball tournament at Champaign starting Thursday morning. A lot of good teams have been eliminated. Some teams are in the select 16 who are not nearly as good as many who have fallen by the wayside.

It is always thus. But out of the sixteen will come a team fully qualified to rank as state champ. Just who that team will be is the question no one can answer. This year it is a tougher task than ever before. The quality of play is on the average below par throughout the state and only a few teams in the state tournament have played consistently good all year against first class competition.

Most strength in upper bracket

Pekin, Collinsville and Pinckneyville have been at the top or near the top in the state ratings all year. Each has lost just one decision and they have played good teams. These three are the favored teams in the upper bracket. In the lower bracket the class of teams is not as good.

LaGrange looks like a possible semi-finalist but has had a lot of very close shaves in building up a 23-1 record. East Rockford built up an impressive record until mid January and then slumped with three defeats and fell below West Aurora and West Rockford in the Big Eight standings. Then East started clicking again and has looked impressive in tournament play. East has always been a good tournament team and could go to the state final.

Robinson is another lower bracket team with much class. They beat Paris out of the state classic and have won 30 games against tough competition.

Champaign and LaSalle-Peru get in with poor records

One of the big surprises was to see Champaign get back into the state tournament. The maroons had a bad season and were not expected to have much chance in the sectional finals with undefeated Hoopeson but they came through 50-30. Champaign and LaSalle-Peru are the only teams lucky enough to get to the state with records under .500.

LaSalle-Peru a usual tail ender in the Big Eight had a poor season with five wins and 15 defeats when the regional opened. LaSalle has won half their victories for the season in the last two weeks and are expected to absorb a bad beating at the hands of strong Pekin in the opener. Other teams with poor records than usual in the state tournament are Moline 18-10, Marion 20-11, and Thornton 16-8.

Paris, Centralia and Salem did not quite make the grade

Two good teams failed to make the grade by one point. Centralia, doped to make the "sweet sixteen" this year again had to play Pinckneyville and lost this year, 40-39. The Pinks got into the state in a surprise win over the same Centralia team last year and then proved to be the darkhorse of the meet by taking third place. They beat Pekin to win third and will be back with three regulars including a great little floor guard, Gladsen who made the all-state team. Another good team to lose out was Robinson who nosed out last year's state champs by one point. Salem, rated as a state champ favorite due to classy play and great height, was beaten in the regional by Centralia's little boys.

Pinckneyville our choice—champ in upper bracket

We would like to see Pinckneyville win the state championship. Their style of play last year won our support. They have a favorable spot in the upper bracket and will be a strong favorite to get to the semi-finals against either Pekin or Collinsville. We will be very surprised, if the state title is won by a team other than from this trio. A return trip to the state is a big advantage. All three of these teams had three of their best six boys were in the tournament last year and got enough big time experience to eliminate any danger of the jitters which so commonly handicaps teams going to Champaign for the first time.

Card baseball outlook is 'not so hot'

It was a dismal day Monday in the athletic offices of Arlington Heights high school, with two factors contributing to the dark shadows throughout the building. One was the weather — which was definitely not made for outdoor sports in general, baseball in particular.

The other was reminiscing of this reporter and baseball coach H. W. Grace, with thoughts of the twelve lettermen of last year's Heights championship nine who were graduated at the end of the term. Of fifteen veterans on last spring's squad, just three remain.

THESE INCLUDE Bill Robinson, last season's No. 2 pitcher who should hold down the ace position this year; Bill Lancelotti, who will be regular third baseman this year; and Marvin Berschet, who will cavort in the outfield when conference play opens in April. It will be a green team for Arlington this year, but a squad that promises more fight and spirit than most teams, according to Coach Grace.

"Leyden, with nine lettermen back, looks strongest in the conference," reports Grace, "with Niles certain to be right up there with another veteran team, including ace tosser Biehn. We hope to land in third spot this year, but even that may be too much of a goal for the squad, for Woodstock and Warren could easily surprise the rest of the league."

N. W. conference clears air on frosh-soph problems

The Northwest conference coaches had made recommendations that the principals went them one better at the meeting last Wednesday as they passed rules to limit coaches in shift of frosh-soph players to varsity teams and vice versa. A new rule for basketball requires that all coaches file with the league secretary before the first January game a list of varsity squad members. After that date none of these players who may be freshmen or sophomores may be moved back to the frosh-soph team. Frosh-soph players may be promoted after that date but if this happens they must finish the season with the varsity.

The matter came to a head as a result of Schuett of Barrington being promoted to the varsity at Christmas time where he served as a reserve until the Elia title game in mid-February when he was demoted to the (Continued on Page Eleven)

Softball league meeting April 1

Opening meeting of the Arlington Heights softball league will be held Thursday night, April 1, at the home of Fred Brehm of Arlington Heights. Persons interested in fielding a team in the league are urged to send a representative to this organization session at 9 p. m. at 511 E. Euclid, Arlington Heights.

Local Floridans have good catches

That local fishermen do have big catches is borne out by the above picture of a 31 lb. 6 1/4" sailfish caught by Mrs. John Blanco recently in Florida. Pictured above, in the center, are Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Johnson, and Mrs. Mr. Blanco, former proprietors of Kitty Korner tavern. In Mr. Johnson's hand is a 9 lb. dolphin caught by him.

Beloit's wrestling twins make foes see double

Beloit College has a pair of wrestling twins who have set some sort of new record as far as being identical and equal in every respect goes.

Bob and Bill Williams from Arlington Heights, Ill., who compete in the 145 pound class, not only look exactly alike, but act alike down to the last detail.

When the season began, Coach Gene Vogel, a man of considerable college wrestling experience, confidently expected to be able to tell the twins apart by the grappling styles into which they would inevitably develop. To this day the twins confound Vogel. Completely inexperienced on the mats, Bob and Bill progressed in the same manner, developing the same sort of holds.

One day in practice Bob received a mat burn on his right temple and Coach Vogel at last figured he could tell the boys apart. Several days later, Bill received a mat burn in exactly the same spot!

To complicate the situation, the twins have been of equal prowess on the mats most of the season. During intra-squad matches they invariably break even. In an exhibition match between the halves of the Beloit-Colo-College basketball game on January 29, Bob and Bill grappled for nine minutes. The final score was four to four!

The situation has changed lately after Bob was sidelined for several weeks with an infected ear. The extra practice gave Bill an edge on his brother and lately he has been getting the 145 lb. duties.

Vogel gives the twins much of the credit for Beloit's record of nine wins in twelve dual meets this year. Since they are only sophomores now, Vogel expects bigger and better things the next two years.

Globe Trotters in triple header with Stags at Stadium

The curtain will be rung down on the regular BAA cage schedule Sunday night at the Chicago Stadium when the Stags oppose St. Louis Bombers in their fight for first place in the league race.

Playoffs and possible world's championship tournament will be all that will remain for ocal fans to see in the cage line at the Stadium after Sunday.

But what a gala finish it is going to be. In a terrific triple header for city fans the Harlem Globe Trotters will oppose the New York Celtics in the third game of Sunday night's play at the Stadium, with the Anderson Packers opposing the Sheboygan Redskins in the opener.

The entire affair promises a near-sellout.

16 straight wins

Palatine Lutheran girls win district championship

Winning has become a habit with the Immanuel Lutheran girls basketball team of Palatine. The team, coached by George Beyer, principal of the Palatine Lutheran school, completed an undefeated season last Sunday by winning the district championship for the second straight year. The Palatine Lutheran girls annexed 16 straight victories this season and made it 32 wins and two defeats for the past two years.

This year Palatine won 12 straight in the Northwest zone and then took the championship of Northern Illinois by beating Belknap of Evanston 28-9, St. Pauls of Chicago Heights 30-13, and St. Stephens of Chicago 28-17 in the district tournament at Forest Park.

Last year Palatine lost only twice during the season and both defeats were at the hands of Park Ridge who won the zone title. However, Palatine finished with higher honors than Park Ridge by winning the district tournament in which Park Ridge fell to a team later beaten by the Palatine girls. Both years Palatine defeated St. Stephens in the district final.

Squad is largely high school girls

All members of the Palatine Township high school with the exception of Vernet Scholow, star guard, who was a 1947 graduate. Coach Beyer has been able to use his whole squad of 14 girls in nearly all the games for with few exceptions the Palatine quintet has won by decisive margins.

The starting lineup in a majority of games was made up of Elaine Scholow and Dolores Kintzinger, forwards; Leona Weide, center; and Vernet Scholow and Dolores Sander guards. Others who played in almost all the games were Marilyn Glade, Viola Weide, Sylvia Weide, Marilyn Miller, Jeanette Gaere, Betty Peterman, Vernet Schinkowsky, Carole Hellberg, and Marilyn Moebling.

E. Scholow and L. Weide set hot scoring pace

The main scorers of the team were Elaine Scholow and Leona Weide each of whom tallied close to 150 points in 16 games. Dolores Kintzinger chalked up over 70 points.

In the district tournament Elaine Scholow was the high point maker of the meet with 14 field goals and seven free throws for a total of 35. Leona Weide scored 28 points in the three tourney games.

Here are Beloit College's wrestling twins, Bob and Bill Williams from Arlington Heights. Note the similarity of the neck muscles and facial expressions. Either Bob or Bill will represent Beloit in the 145 pound class in the Midwest Conference championship meet to be held in the Beloit field house Saturday, March 6.

Chicago Cubs year book ideal text for all fans

Cubs Year Book—1948. In no better way can the wealth of information, baseball history and local color be described than came to this writer's attention in a beautifully printed book now on sale at Wrigley Field for just fifty cents.

The new edition traces the development of the Cubs from February 2, 1876, founders day for the National league, up to spring training in 1948.

THERE ARE MANY firsts in this book of records and pictures of "old and new timers" with the first Cub (known then as the White Stockings) president, William Hulbert, also prexy of the first organized league. Hulbert has been called the "father of the league."

The Cubs won the pennant that year, then again in 1880, '81, '82, '85 and '86. A wait of 20 years brought Chicago more pennants in 1906, '07, '08, '10, '18, '29, '32, '35, '38 and '45.

In the year book is traced the Cubs' "home grounds" at four different locations until the present site was purchased as the Federal league folded in 1916.

RECOUNTED in the book are both credits and debits on the Cub ledgers with accounts of Hartnett's famous pennant-clinching homer in 1938; of Cuyler's 10th inning homer after the Cubs had given up four runs, to break the backs of the Giants in 1932; of Babe Ruth's disputed "calling" of that fateful homer in 1932; of Hack Wilson dropping the ball in the sun for the straw that broke the Cubs' back in the '29 series.

The fifty page booklet gives every conceivable angle local fans could think of about the Cubs, including complete records and pictures of every man on the roster for this year, most of whom have already garnered three victories over their Chicago brethren, the White Sox.

All in all, it's a great book, and worth much more than the half a dollar necessary to send it winging from Wrigley Field to homes of local fans.

Arlington has 18 boys back for track

With eighteen lettermen back to compete this year for Coach Bill Creamer's Arlington Heights track squad, the outlook for the local cardmen is bright.

The Cardinals ranked second last year in the all-important Palatine Relays, just eight points behind winning Niles. Previous year the Heights boys had copped the meet.

Then last year Coach Creamer's boys grabbed third in North-

Snow, rain, and wet weather has kept the boys inside to date, though the halls have been ringing with their running steps the last few weeks.

To televise boxing at Libertyville

The first television sporting event to be televised from Lake county will be an international boy boxing show between the Libertyville Boy's club and Toronto, Canada, on Saturday, March 27.

In announcing public the announcement today, the Libertyville Boys' Club revealed that station WKBK of Chicago will broadcast and television the amateur fights. The event will have a potential audience of 150,000 according to station WKBK.

A representative of the station attended the recent Virginia show which Libertyville lost, 6-4, and was well pleased with the program. Because of the curiosity of many fans on the relaying of television, Libertyville's high school gym should have a standing room crowd and will most likely exceed last year's gathering of 2,500 that witnessed the Canadian show.

Tickets are going fast as evidenced by one club director selling 51 within a ten-minute period last week.

Coach Frank Gilmer, who has been chosen as one of three referees for the national collegiate boxing tourney at Madison, Wisconsin, for teams all over the United States, will leave today with a group of three boxers and club treasurer Wm. Weidner to compete in the national inter-scholastic tourney for boys at the University of Virginia.

ALKA-SELTZER is unusually effective in the relief of Headache because its analgesic (painrelieving content) is made more positive by alkaline buffers. Alka-Seltzer being a combination of painrelieving and alkalizing ingredients has gained wide usage and popularity for the relief of Acid Indigestion, Cold Symptoms, "Morning After" misery and Muscular Pains. And be sure to try Alka-Seltzer for that tired feeling following hard work or strenuous exercise.

Name first 3 teams of pro cage classic

The Indianapolis Kautskys, defending champions, were given the first bid to the Chicago Herald-American's 10th Annual World's Championship Basketball tournament. The Hoosiers thus enter the lists to battle again for the 1948 crown at Chicago Stadium, April 8, 9 and 11.

The recent addition of sharpshooting Frew Lewis, voted the 1946 All-Star Classic's most valuable player, and big George Glamack, all-American center and formerly of the Rochester Royals, has made the Kautskys a real threat in the forthcoming big cage event.

Fort Wayne Zollner Pistons are the second team named. This great squad, three-time winner of the World Classic, the National Basketball League championship and twice victors in the Herald-American's College All-Star Basketball game, is back to regain valued prestige lost last season. The Zollners are a greatly improved team. Tiring veterans have been dropped and brilliant newcomers added.

Wilkes-Barre Barons, hailed as the greatest pro basketball team in the East and currently leading the strong American league by a safe margin, is the third team invited. The Barons have run up a spectacular record of 34 wins against 9 defeats for their season's efforts and in exhibition games, have defeated such stalwart squads as the Harlem Globetrotters and Philadelphia Warriors.

Good tickets are available for the three big nights, either at Bond's Store, 65 W. Madison st., or by mail at the Chicago Herald-American. Make check payable to ticket manager and send to room 304, 326 W. Madison st., Chicago, 6, Illinois.

frish-sophs, who won, 25-23, and took the championship. Schuett then moved back to the varsity and played first ball as a regular in five tournament games. This was perfectly legal but is a situation that the conference hopes to avoid by the new rule.

Frish-soph football placed on same basis as basketball

"The other rule is one which limits frish-soph participation in varsity football games. The new rule forbids a boy who was in a varsity lineup on Friday or Saturday from playing in the following week. There was re-emphasis upon the point that the Monday games are limited to frish-sophs as there has been trouble in the past with some coaches working juniors into frish-soph football lineups. The Northwest conference does not play double headers in football preferring to play the varsity game on Friday or Saturday with the frish-sophs of the same schools meeting on the Monday following. With the new rule they can just as well play both the same afternoon.

N. W. conference track meet at Palatine May 20

The principals voted to increase the pay of basketball officials for the next year to $15. They approved the basketball and baseball schedules drawn up by the author of this column who is the league secretary. They approved the coaches' decision to have the conference track meet at Palatine at 6:15 p. m. on Thursday, May 20, and the conference golf tournament at Barrington Hills Country club at 1:00 p. m. on Monday, May 24.

Olms sells drug store

Mayor A. S. Olms of Palatine, after 19 years in business in Palatine and 36 years in the drug business, has sold his drug store to J. H. Toynot of Chicago.

After spending over a quarter of a century in business life, serving the people often as a public official, it is fitting that Mr. Olms should have a well earned rest. Whether in private or public life, he has always taken great interest in Palatine and as his time is not now so fully occupied, he will be better able than ever to attend to his duties as mayor and look to the best interest of the village.

Palatine couple wed 50 years

Mr. and Mrs. M. Bollenbach, Palatine, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary Sunday. Their little granddaughter was also christened the same day.

All their children, except Gus of South Dakota, were present. Mr. and Mrs. Bollenbach were married in Long Grove 50 years ago and have lived in Palatine 12 years.

Three men at Bensenville depot

The Milwaukee railroad now has three men employed at the Bensenville depot to act as operators and agent. Joe Hanson works as operator from midnight until 9 a. m. John Lafferty is employed from 3 p. m. until midnight, while A. J. Perry puts in six hours of operating and three hours of agent and express work.

New creamery at Schaumburg

C. H. Patten of Palatine, at the solicitation of several influential citizens of Schaumburg, has joined them and helped to organize a stock company with $10,000 capital to build and equip a modern creamery at Schaumburg Center.

Ground has been broken and Henry Schoppe is busy excavating. The farmers are taking great interest in the project and donating considerable labor. The factory should be running by June 1. Roselle on the C. M. & St. P. Ry. will be the shipping point until the new electric railway is completed to Schaumburg.

Davermann's horses run away

One of Wm. Davermann's teams, Palatine, took a flyer Monday morning, making three miles starting from Sef-ton's place and stopping at J. W. Wilson's barn without injuring a thing. It's a good thing there was no freight train in the way or they might have piled up a few cars and delayed traffic.

Storm disrupts telephone service

The sleet and rain storm Saturday night put half the Palatine telephones out of commission. The company put all their men on the toll lines, hence it was several days before local subscribers could get connections with whomever they desired. It was the weatherman's fault so don't blame the telephone girl.

Tales of the STREET

BY L. C. HART

THE ICE AGE

A lot of folks were wondering last week if the ice age was returning. The mid-winter weather with below zero temperature and cold winds did not sit well with those who were looking forward to a breath of spring.

Some of the farmers were recalling other March months when they had been seeding grain and even planting potatoes by this time of the year. Below zero temperature March 12, but by March 15 it appears spring is on the way.

CHILLY VISITORS

Folks from the northland were not very complimentary about our cold weather. The other morning Frank Sullivan (Sully) who recently returned from a trip to Canada, came shivering into the coffee club with chattering teeth and said it was colder here than it had been up in Canada where it was 25 below zero.

Then one morning, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman, who operate a summer resort way up in the north woods, dropped in on old Palatine friends and said they hadn't been so cold all winter as they were in our chilly climate.

They reported snow five feet deep. When they were reminded that we had quite a snow storm March 1st, Mrs. Hoffman said "poof, your little snow wasn't anything."

Then along came reports of big March blizzards in Kansas and Oklahoma. What a winter, what a winter. The sun is getting higher every day and spring will officially be here March 21st.

MORE FUEL TO THE FIRE

Along come Lorry and Trix Rappold from up in Wisconsin and they too add to the chorus of how cold it is in Illinois. "Oil for heating," they say, "is mighty scarce up in our county." They did not look for a warmer climate because they wanted to stay home and get their oil quota to keep the home fires burning. Both are looking in top shape as if the cold country agrees with them.

COOPEL UP

Clarence Uhrhammer is cooped up these days in the Community hospital, a victim of unseasonable spring weather. He fell on the ice, breaking an ankle. A lot of the boys visit him and are free with advice. Roy LaLonde suggested that he get a sunlamp and imagine that he is basking on the sands of Florida.

"Senator" Staples delivered some bus line schedules the other day, with "here they are but I do not know what you want with them." Clarence uses the schedules to keep track of the buses as they pass his window. "I may be laid up in bed and unable to sell shirts and ties, but I can be a bus dispatcher. If a bus is late I worry as much as do the passengers down stairs who are wondering how much longer they will have to wait, or if the bus came ahead of time."

ARIZONA GUIDE

A guide book of Arizona arrived in town the other day, addressed to "the boys who drink coffee at Lena's." Roy LaLonde, as president of the coffee hour received the guide and passed it on to the coffee-hour members.

It was sent, of course, by Otto Gaere, of the Bar K ranch, near Phoenix, Ariz., who is himself one of the coffee-hour boys whenever he is in town.

That coffee club at Lena's is becoming famous; even the post-office knows where to deliver its mail.

I. C. C. GIVES O. K.

The plans of the C. & N. W. R. R. Co., relative to improvements in Palatine, were given the green light recently by the Illinois Commerce Commission at a hearing on the proposed changes in signals and crossings, and ordered that the railroad make the changes.

The next move is up to the railroad to grant the street easements to the village, which in turn will ask the state to release certain gas tax funds for their paving. Will it not be great if the year 1948 will go down in history as the year that Palatine got its new depot?

RADIO STATION PAL

"Sully" who is never at a loss for a stunt thought up a new one the other day and brought over to Roy LaLonde's office a wire recording device. The boys took turns saying cheerful words to "Twinkle Toes" (Clarence Uhrhammer's nickname since he starred in Lions Club ballet several years ago).

"Sully" took the broadcast to the hospital where Clarence got a cheerful greeting from a lot of his friends.

The boys by the way, had a great time with that machine. They staged a coffee hour broadcast, a political debate and some advertising commercials. Requests for rebroadcasts should be left at Sully's.

REAL SYSTEM

Our school boards do business by system these days. We can remember when a board would meet, pass a few bills, listen to what the superintendent had to say, discuss a few problems and be ready for adjournment at a reasonable hour.

Now, when a Palatine school board meets, the principal has provided each member a schedule of bills and an agenda of matters to be considered that evening. The conference table is piled high with reports and papers pertinent to school affairs. It is similar to a meeting of the board of directors of a big industry.

School business, by the way, has become a big business, the biggest business in a community. The school boards spend more money than many large sized businesses. The transaction of all this business takes time. These school boards have to take hours in disposing of the affairs of the school and it is more often 11 o'clock or later before the members are ready to go home.

Yes, the operation of our school is big business and the school board jobs are the most important in the community; even though they are often the most thankless and obscure jobs on earth.

School boards everywhere deserve a lot more thanks than they ever get. They are handling the job of raising and moulding the thinking of future citizenry of America.

Weekly recipe

Macaroni and cheese is a mainstay in every household — a thrifty meal. Try this recipe — it's something different and extra special. A delicate medley of luscious flavor and rare seasoning baked 'til golden brown. A good dish to appease hungry palates.

Macaroni and Cottage cheese

1 pkge. cooked macaroni.
4 tbsps. butter
4 tbsps. flour
1 cup spaghetti sauce
1 tsp. salt
1 small onion, finely chopped
1 green pepper, finely chopped
1 cup cottage cheese, buttered bread crumbs or saltines.

Method: Melt butter and blend in flour. Cook over low heat until mixture is brown. Stir in remaining ingredients except the crumbs. Pour over macaroni. Stir in lightly to distribute. Sprinkle top with bread crumbs. Bake in preheated oven at 350 degrees for 40 minutes.

Tavern owner says 'why not?' in answer to higher license fee

ABOUT THE WEATHER

"Beware the ides of March" was spoken to one J. Caesar in olden days. At present we simply gotta at least be wary of it for a couple of reasons.

1. You'd better file your income tax report or else —

2. That date marks the end of winter weather insofar as the groundhog is concerned. (I dunno about cactus calculations in that respect.)

But I do know that, meteorologically speaking, the "normal" average temperature for these parts starts a sharp upturn about that date. And from then on the poets sing about "a young man's fancy" etc. St. Valentines day sort of rushing the season somewhat.

To get back to the weather angle. It so happens this year that groundhog and cacti prognostications have coincided with actual weather conditions, and the gentry of those faiths are now numbering themselves with the "I told you so" boys.

But hasn't it been ever thus? Could we ever expect any amount of mild weather before the ides of March? O yes, I remember February 1931 or '32 which were mild, dry and sometimes dusty, but both Febs. were followed by colder March weather. Whether or not the groundhog saw his shadow on the 2nd or the cactus plants bloomed I dunno.

Anyway it seems the buds happen about the same time every year. "April showers bring May flowers." The average is about the same every year.

Maybe some day we'll have man-made weather and just by looking at the morning paper we

TAVERN LICENSE

As a tavern owner in Arlington Heights and in view of certain statements that appeared in the last edition of Paddock Publications regarding tavern license fees in Arlington Heights, I desire to state my position. I have no objection to an increase in tavern licenses and do not believe that the new rate adopted by the board Monday night will work a hardship on any person engaged in the sale of liquor. I know that I will gladly pay it.

Tavern business is an occupation that is apart from regular commercial establishments. On account of its nature we are required to pay higher rentals, higher insurance and "kick-in" amounts for charitable and civic purposes that are in excess of that expected of the regular business man.

We enter the tavern business under those conditions and the general public expects us to pay that penalty for being in the tavern business—a business that only earns its right to live as long as it abides by certain rules established by the state and municipality.

I, as a tavern keeper, am willing to abide by the rules that may be set forth by those authorities.

will know what kind of clothes to wear that day. That will probably come about the time a certain bus company opens up a ticket office and waiting room at Des Plaines.

GOOD NEIGHBORS

If this is the City of Good Neighbors, why don't they start out the new home owners right and fix the street on Park ave. at State road. It just takes a little hard work and a bit of donation. Wish I had a picture of it Monday of this week.

It Happened Here

The Poet

"He lived detached days,"
Asked neither gold nor praise:
Childhood and innocence he made
Into songs the wood harp played.
He sang and children joyed to hear
While nesting birds felt God was near.
If any such were lost or crying,
He told Who heard their faintest sighing;
Emmet or glow worm or beetle old,
These he covered with Mercy's fold.
In the forest, shorn of might,
The tiger lay within that light.
Pearlie, the colored caretaker
Of a house to be shown to possible buyers, gave her "repo!"
"Yes, Ma'm, I wiped and dusted and tucked my cot and bedding out of sight, and everything is one hundred percentable."

—S'AMUSER.

Students mourn passing of 'Spirit'

Students in large numbers wore black armbands last week to "mourn the passing of school spirit" at Maine Township high school, but Supt. Frank L. Holmes stuck by his guns on orders reducing student election week to three days, and banning campaign posters from all sections of the building except the gymnasium. To noisy assembly groups Friday he explained that fire officials of both Park Ridge and Des Plaines had declared posters scattered throughout the school a distinct fire hazard. A full week of electioneering, the superintendent contended, cut too heavily into the educational program.

THE MAILMAN'S CORNER

by LELAND ELLIS TRUXELL

A voice came to me from a house that I was passing the other day. It was a high, whining voice, near to tears.

"But mother, I can't practice my piano lesson. I've got a sore finger!"

"If she is a wise mother," I thought, "She will examine that finger carefully, and if it is only a slight injury, treat it, and insist that her boy play."

And then I got to thinking of all the people I have met in the past twenty-one years as a carrier, who have developed the same sort of excuse making in order to escape work on responsibility. Grownups I mean, people in their forties and fifties who are always alibing for their failure in life.

It is entirely possible that many of the failures in life to day are the results of successful duty and work dodging in early childhood. The repetition of a harmful habit over a long period of time can only result in a complex of some sort, and once such a complex is firmly integrated into a personality, only a strong determination and a great deal of experience, much of it bad, will succeed in breaking it.

All sorts of excuses are given for failure. Perhaps the prize of them all was told me by a man who, though natively intelligent, was a ne'er do well. One of those fellows who are forever just beginning a new job, or leaving an old one.

"I can't settle down," he explained seriously. "You see, my great grandmother was an artist, and I inherited her artistic temperament. Small wonder that I can't settle down into anything permanent. I will never succeed at anything until I land something creative."

And all this despite the fact that he is not artistic, cannot draw or paint or play a piano.

Half an hour a day of thoughtful life-planning might help this man to get on the right trail. He will never make it though. It is quite impossible, you see, because of his "artistic temperament."

like we are riding in a motor boat instead of a car," for we splashed through several "ponds" on our way down the country road. But, oh, the wonderful fragrance in the air! And the bird sounds were oftener and stronger. Or, perhaps, it was just that I was listening with greater intensity, and wanted to make myself believe that winter is truly over.

I remember that last year we had a fearful blizzard and snow storm during Jack's Spring vacation period, and were snow-bound for several days, giving him the opportunity to ride his horse to town for supplies and mail—just as was done in the olden days. March, and even April, in these parts are apt to be quite unreliable. Still, it is nice to dream of an ever-new Spring, isn't it? And if it weren't for winter I doubt if we'd appreciate the first signs of Spring as much as we do.

The ponies were enjoying their exercise in the barnyard this past week end. As soon as they were released from their stalls in the barn they went out into the yard and dropped immediately to the ground and rolled over and over in the melting snow. When they stood up they were indeed a sorry sight—mud, thick patches of it, covered their once lovely and thick winter coats. Seeing them from my kitchen window as I prepared dinner, I was reminded of Stan-ton Coblenz' poem:

The Four-Footed

"Like us they breathe and hunger, taste and smell,
Frolic with joy, and tremble with surprise.
They leap with startled, apprehensive eyes
From shadows; and embrace the fathomless spell
Of slumber; and from dreams they cannot tell
They waken to our earth of fields and skies.
They thirst; desire; are racked with anguished cries;
When cut, they bleed; when beaten, they rebel.
Like us they struggle to beget and grow
Within a world whose infinite Ends and Aims
They cannot even guess—only in this
Different from man: we seek to probe, to know,

And, worried by Facts and Causes, lose the bliss
That every flicking colt and kitten claims."

Thinking of Spring, I'm reminded again of the little song Edward composed last Spring. He wrote both the words and music with only a wee bit of help. Here are the words:

"Spring is in the air today,
Let us sing a roundelay.
Birds are in the trees,
Soft the warm Spring breeze;
We're as happy as can be.
Flowers in the garden plot,
Let us hurry to the spot,
For soon it will be time
To end our little rhyme,
And go indoors to have our tea."

I had the pleasure of attending a singing class at which this song was sung by his classmates. It is written in march time, so the children are able to sing while they march along. Even the teachers and I found ourselves humming this simple, lilt-ing little song.

No matter what a child's attempt at creative work may be, it is not entirely inconsequential. Every effort he makes should be encouraged by his teachers and parents, for we are striving to develop thinkers for tomorrow. We can help them by recognizing any signs of initiative, and by our support and furtherance of their endeavors.

With love, Mary.

Modern Etiquette

By Roberta Lee

Q—Is it all right for two women to shake hands when they are introduced?

A—Yes, it is all right if they are close together and it is convenient. The act of shaking hands signifies a sincere pleasure over the introduction.

Q—How can one signal the waiter that one is ready to have the plate removed from the table?

A—The knife and fork laid side by side on the plate indicates that one has finished eating.

Q—What is the correct way for an unmarried woman to sign her letters?

A—With her full name. When writing to a stranger, she should prefix "Miss" in parentheses.

Q—Is it ever permissible for a man to walk on the inside of the pavement when accompanying a woman?

A—Only if they are making their way through a rough, jostling crowd, and the man can protect the woman better by keeping on the inside.

Q—When attending church and some person offers one a song book, should one always accept it?

A—Yes; one should graciously accept the book, even if unable to sing.

Q—Is it all right for a bride to wear a veil if her wedding is to be a very small one?

A—Yes; a veil may be worn at any wedding, unless it is a civil or a second marriage.

Q—When dinner is announced and there are guests of all ages present, who should precede from the living room to the dining room, the older or the younger people?

A—The older people should precede, the younger guests following.

Q—If a person signifies a desire to leave when one is standing and talking with him, should one attempt to detain him?

A—Never; not even for one minute. Bid him goodbye at once.

Q—When a man is eating in a public dining room and a woman stops to speak with him, should he rise?

A—Yes, most certainly.

Q—Is it customary for one who attends a christening to bring a gift?

A—Yes, it is customary.

GI students should check status of all dependents

All qualified GI students with dependents were urged today to make certain that the status of their dependents are properly recorded in order to receive the newly approved increased subsistence allowances.

This appeal came from the Illinois Veterans commission. It was pointed out that the new increases are effective April 1, 1948 to full time trainees in schools, colleges and universities.

Increases will be automatic if proof of dependency has been filed. While most married veterans have already submitted birth certificates, many have failed to file birth certificates of children or evidence to establish the dependency of a parent.

Student veterans with dependents are urged to contact Walter S. Haynes, IVC service officer at 41 South Prospect ave., Park Ridge, in Cook county, who will assist the veteran in submitting the necessary documentary evidence to establish proof of all dependents.

PATENT GRANTED

A patent has been issued in Washington to David A. Forberg, of Des Plaines and H. E. Wheeler, of Chicago, for an improved food locker.

Patents have been issued at Washington to Milton M. Marisua, Northfield, for hydrofluoric acid alkylation process which he has assigned to the Pure Oil Co., and Richard C. Uhlemann, Barrington, for a lens edge grinder which he assigned to the Uhlmann Optical Co., Chicago.

Some facts about U. of Ill., just 80 years old last week

The University of Illinois opened March 2, 1868, with a faculty consisting of the Regent and two others and with 50 students. In the 80 years since the University opened, some 175,000 young men and women have followed the footsteps of the first 50 who enrolled.

Last fall the University enrolled 29,944 students.

The University has four campuses: the main one at Urbana-Champaign, its medical group in Chicago, and at Galesburg and at Navy Pier, Chicago, undergraduate division offering the first two years in Fine Arts, Commerce, and Engineering.

Today the University has a plant valued at $52,000,000.

The College of Agriculture is world famous for scores of reasons. Its system of Permanent Soil Fertility is worth millions of dollars annually to the state.

Its 40 years of pioneering work in the breeding, production and utilization of soybeans enables the state to double the production of its nearest competitor.

Last year this one piece of University work paid the farmers of Illinois $218,000,000—many times the worth of the University's physical plant.

Out of tax funds, the University this year is receiving 2½ millions of dollars for operation purposes. This amounts to less than 1c per day for each of the state's residents.

The Illinois library is the largest of any state university, and fifth largest in the Nation. It has 2,552,395 books, pamphlets, maps, etc.

The idea of Homecoming—adopted by colleges and schools throughout the world—originated at the University of Illinois which had the first such celebration in 1910.

When Thomas Arkle Clark became Dean of Men at the University in 1901 he was the first man ever to hold such a post anywhere.

Nature designed the kidneys to do a marvelous job. Their task is to keep the flowing stream free of an excess of toxic impurities. The act of living—its life—is constantly producing waste matter the kidneys must remove from the blood if good health is to endure.

When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is retention of waste that may cause body-wide distress. One may suffer nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up at night, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—feel tired, nervous, all worn out.

Frequent, scanty or burning passages are sometimes further evidence of kidney or bladder disturbance.

The recognized and proper treatment is a diuretic medicine to help the kidneys get rid of excess poisonous body waste. Use Doan's Pills. They have had more than forty years of public approval. Are endorsed the country over. Insist on Doan's. Sold at all drug stores.

Today's sensitive photoelectric cell or "electric eye," which is used for many things including sound movies, is the result of development carried on at the University in 1913 by the late Prof. Jacob Kunz.

In 1881 Prof. T. J. Burrill of the Illini faculty discovered the first evidence that bacteria caused plant disease. This was before Pasteur and Koch discovered that bacteria caused disease of persons and animals.

Practical instruction of engineering students in America dates back to 1870 when the University was first to establish a shop for engineering education.

Art teacher at Arlington High inspires students art work

by NANCY NICHOLS

Here you are in the art room of Arlington High. A newcomer at this sort of thing, you are somewhat awed by the shelves and shelves of pictures and the half-finished portrait posted there in front. In the little nook adjoining the actual classroom, paintings in oil, the art classes' latest medium, cover the walls.

Miss Katharine Renich, art teacher at AHTHS shows you these oils first. Here on the right you see pictured a little country home nestling in green bushes and trees. A placid brook flows in the foreground. You learn that this work, with its realistic shadow effects, was finished in only two weeks by Dolores Wilke, an Arlington junior.

An apple study in oils, just completed by senior Joanne Leckband, next catches your eye. A white, cardboard box adds color or contrast, while soft green velvet, looking real enough to touch, forms the background. Another of Joanne's works, a street scene of India done in water colors, gives the observer a feeling of oppressive heat and stifling crowds.

WHAT'S THIS in back? Why, it's an oil painting of flower pots, gardeners' tools, and a little red sprinkling can. Obviously its creator, sophomore Mary Lou Sander, has had practical experience in the garden. Beside Mary Lou's work is another gardener's scene. Here Barbara Tichy, also a sophomore, has pictured garden tools, a sprinkling can, and an enormous yellow straw hat—all set off by a friendly-looking little stone wall. Miss Renich points out a bright, bustling carnival scene also painted by Barbara. This water color work reproduces the hilarious gaiety of merry-making crowds.

Two water color studies of a silver vase decorated with rich-hued petunias attract your eye. They are the work of Pat Dunavan, AHTHS freshman, and Dorothy Cosman, a senior in her first year of art work. You also admire a canal scene in oils done by Elroy Wilke, a second year student. Elroy's small crafts are so real you can almost see the wind stirring their sails. Abstract crayola drawings by freshman Stuart Revenaugh show modernistic art trends. Pictures by Dawn Niemeyer, junior; Rae Chidley, sophomore; Howard McElhose, junior; William Wimmer, junior; and many other students are proudly displayed by Miss Renich, who tells you that many of these students could make art their career.

AS YOU ADMIRE these varied paintings, questions bubble to your lips. Have the art classes done any printing? With which mediums do the students work? Are portraits the hardest works to produce? Miss Renich obligingly answers. The art classes, you find, have worked on printing only to gain a sense of good lettering, not to develop faultless printing technique. The students have worked in all mediums from calk to finger-paints. Some enterprising individuals have even tried etching. Portraits, they require a great deal of background and knowledge of composition. The term "composition" includes such factors as shadowing, background, and color tints. You realize, as Miss Renich speaks, that portrait work is only for the more advanced student.

Now that your curiosity about art itself has been temporarily satisfied, your interest turns to Arlington High's art teacher. Miss Katharine Renich, who was first fascinated by art in the seventh grade, has not only done a great deal of painting herself, but also has taught art to all age groups. In her own words she has had a "variety of experience" in the teaching field. Art and history have always been Miss Renich's chief interests, and her studies in each have developed appreciation and understanding of the other. After attending both the University of Illinois and the University of Wisconsin, Arlington's art instructor took an "Art Appreciation" course at the University of Chicago. Many of Miss Renich's works have been exhibited: one water color, picturing an open pumpkin, yellow corn, and a bronze teapot, was displayed for eleven years at the University of Illinois. At one time this inspiring painting was exhibited with thirty outstanding oil works to show what heights water color can attain.

AS YOU SLOWLY leave the art room, you are still lost in thoughts of the fascinating things you have seen and heard. Wouldn't it be wonderful if you could paint? But what was that Miss Renich said? "Sometimes it takes months or even years to develop artistic talent. One never knows what he can do until he tries it!" Say, perhaps you have a chance after all. Why, if you signed up for art next year . . .

Guess you know by this time that Arlington Heights went to Rockford High to compete in the Sectional Contest of the Illinois High School Speech Contest. Arlington did not attain all we hoped but it was beaten. Arlington was working and competing against odds that were insurmountable. Take West Rockford for instance against whom Arlington has taken a large lead in the L.H.S.S.C. competition. The reason? In the first place it has more than 3500 students to select from. It has two stages and a little theatre group. It has classes in debate with a special teacher for each team. The Arlington team with about four weeks of work behind them went up against a Rockford team with four years experience and training behind them.

Also the "Big Eight Conference", in addition to having athletic tournaments, have speech contests. Their speech department is often as large as their coaching staff and as active. There are incentives set up for the speech students like letters to encourage participation in such events. You see that Arlington is going up against schools like Freeport, West and East Rockford, New Trier, and other such schools. Arlington need not continue to be outclassed. Arlington has the talent, and if we will make further progress in the betterment of our facilities, Arlington will be a leading contender for State Laurels.

It is interesting to note that in the Sectional contest there are only two entrants in the State Contest from our district. It is up to us to make certain that next year, we have twenty-two students going downstate to bring back the speech trophy for good old A.H.T.H.S. We can if we will!

Y. C.

Here is a special White Orchid for Mrs. Harold Anderson, the superb and accomplished coach of the Arlington speech team.

She worked night and day on the program. If you can, imagine one teacher teaching English, speech, and radio workshop during the day and then after school coaching a debate team, instructing the individual entrants, and after dinner going back to school and directing a play for the contest. To her go our very best wishes.

It's great to be a winner. It is always hard to lose. But we mustn't let it get us down. If we should get some sad, bad news.

Days are not all sunny; Nights are not all clear; All isn't milk and honey; Joy is not always near.

We can only know fine weather When we think of the storm before.

We can only appreciate peace When we remember the terrible war.

We cannot always win, how true. We must take the bitter with the sweet.

For how can we glory in victory, If we have never known defeat.

Survey shows park influence on public life

The municipal park systems of Illinois are shown to be of major importance in their influence on community life in this state, according to a survey just completed results of which were disclosed today by the Park Commissioners of the Arlington Hts. Park District of this city. The survey was made by a special committee of the Illinois Association of Park Districts. It states that the municipal park systems of this state maintain more than 20,000 acres of park land. Among the facilities provided are over 225 baseball diamonds, over 800 soft-ball diamonds, more than 1,000 tennis courts, 76 outdoor swimming pools, 32 golf courses, more than 230 fieldhouses or pavilions, scores of athletic fields, children's playgrounds and other recreational facilities.

The commissioners stated, "The public municipal parks in Illinois have become one of the chief agencies in our community life to bring about better health, reduced juvenile delinquency and many wholesome and beneficial leisure time services to the public. The parks of Illinois are no longer mere beauty spots. They are true service stations to make for better citizens. We of the Park District in this city are striving towards these ends and we are proud to

by SIEBURG DRUG CO., Inc.

Seldom is anyone prepared for illness... it is usually an emergency. Yet it need not bring chaos, needless worry, or overwork if you secure the services of a physician as soon as possible.

For the physician, experienced in dealing with illness, brings calmness, reassurance, and efficiency into the sick room. By assuming responsibility for the patient he relieves you of worry.

You are free then to keep the patient quiet and comfortable, and to carry out the doctor's orders. When he prescribes medicine it should be given just as directed. You will be assured of getting a prescription made of quality drugs and compounded with accuracy when you have it filled by a really conscientious pharmacist.

Arlington man is unopposed in Demo race for Congress

Willard C. Walters, 519 S. Pine street, Arlington Heights, will be unopposed in the April 10 primaries in the Democratic race for representative to Congress from the 13th Congressional District, Illinois.

Walters graduated from the University of Minnesota in 1912 and moved to Chicago at that time. He has lived in Cook county since then.

After attending De Paul university college of law, Walters was admitted to the Bar in June, 1928.

He is married and has three children, Mary Louise, 14, Judith Ann, 12, and Susan Loretta, 9.

Walters and his family moved from Chicago to Arlington Hts. in 1935 and have resided here continuously since that time. Prior to this election, Walters has never been a candidate for election to public office of any kind nor has he even been on a public payroll.

For the past seven years he has been a director and secretary of the Hump Hair Pin Manufacturing company, and recently a director and secretary of Gaylord-Shelton, Inc. He also is a director and secretary of Col-orprint corporation of Chicago.

Liquor License Fee Ordinance

An Ordinance amending Section 6 of an Ordinance to regulate the sale of alcoholic liquors in the Village of Arlington Heights, County of Cook and State of Illinois, passed by the Board of Trustees of said village on the 26th day of February, 1934.

Be it ordained by the President and Board of Trustees of the Village of Arlington Heights, County of Cook and State of Illinois:

Section 1. That Section 6 of an ordinance entitled:

"An ordinance to regulate the sale of alcoholic liquors in the Village of Arlington Heights, County of Cook and State of Illinois"

passed by the Board of Trustees of said Village on the 26th day of February, 1934, and approved by the President of said Village on the 28th day of February, 1934, be and the same is hereby amended so that said Section 6 of said ordinance shall be and read as follows:

"Section 6. Classification — Fees. Such licenses shall be and are hereby divided into four classes, to-wit:

Lesson in English

By W. L. Gordon
WORDS OFTEN MISUSED
Do not say, "I wish to see you badly." Say, "I wish very much to see you."
Do not say, "Robert is interested in everything in the athletic line." Say, "in everything athletic."

Do not say, "The box of candy was not hardly enough." Say, "The box of candy was (omit not) scarcely enough."
Do not say, "We have been doing that right along." Say, "We have been doing that regularly

(or, persistently)."
Do not say, "Of two evils choose the least." Say, choose the lesser."
Do not say, "Jones is in a bad fix." Say, "Jones is in trouble," or, "in an awkward position."

OFTEN MISPRONOUNCED WORDS
Ignominy. Pronounce ig-no-min-i, all i's as in it, o as in no, accent first syllable.
Quietus. Pronounce kwi-e-tus, i as in lie, e as in me, accent second syllable.

Maelstrom. Pronounce mal-strum, first syllable as male, o as in on unstressed, accent first syllable.

Embryo. Pronounce em-bri-o, e as in men, i as in it, o as in no, accent first syllable.

Baton. Preferred pronunciation is baton, a as in ask unstressed, o as in dog, accent last syllable.

Engross. Pronounce the o as in no, accent last syllable.

WORDS
OFTEN MISPELLED
Gray; grey; both spellings are correct, though gray is preferred. Hoard (a store laid up). Horde (a clan or tribal group). Cede (to yield); distinguished from seed. Dilemma; observe the two m's. Victual; pronounced vit'l Weir; ei. Wield; ie.

WORD STUDY
"Use a word three times and it is yours." Let us increase our vocabulary by mastering one word each day. Words for this lesson:

RATIONAL: having reason or in understanding. "A rational nature admits of nothing but what is serviceable to the rest of mankind."—Antoninus.

PRECEPT: a command respecting moral conduct. He was better versed in precepts than practice.

IRREVERENT: showing a want of respect. "God never gave man a thing to do concerning which it were irreverent to ponder how the Son of God would have done it."—Macdonald.

AMENDABLE: willing to yield or submit; responsive; tractable. "He went obediently

Japan

First Lieutenant Melvin R. Preston, son of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Preston of Palatine and Chestnut Rds., Arlington Heights, is presently serving as a P-51 "Mustang" fighter pilot and Wing leader for the 7th Fighter Squadron of the 49th Fighter group which fought its way to Japan in company with such combat aces as Major James Watkins and Major Ira Bong. The northernmost fighter base in the Fifth Air Force tactical air defense network, Chitose carries out its mission under duress of near combat conditions.

Lt. Preston graduated from the Arlington Heights township high school in 1940, and then worked in Chicago, where he was employed by General Electric. He entered the Air Force at Sheppard Field, Texas, graduating as a twin-engine pilot from the Army Flying School at Seymour Freeman, Indiana. The lieutenant later checked out in B-24 Liberator bombers which he flew both at Muroc Air Base, Calif., and Tonopah Air Base, Nevada, between 1944 and 1946. In May of 1946 Preston hopped an Air Transport Command plane for Japan, where, after various brief assignments through out the Far East, he was transferred to his present base. Since his arrival at Chitose, Preston has flown to such widespread Pacific and Far East Air Force locations as Hawaii, Guam, and Korea. He also participated in the gigantic Air Force Day aerial review which passed over the center of Tokyo last year.

Lt. Preston, who was widely known in Arlington Heights for his accendian renditions now employs this talent for the entertainment of troops in his command. In addition to his primary duty as a fighter pilot, he also acts in the administrative capacity of Base T&E, and Public Information Officer.

Private First Class Raymond R. Sorensen, of Route 2, Palatine, has recently completed 20 hours of instruction and study in radio course, at the Kyoto Education Center, Kyoto, Japan. This course includes the many intricacies of electricity, its place in the Signal Corps communications of system, and its more practical uses in civil life.

Operated by the troop information and education section, headquarters I corps, Kyoto, the Kyoto Education Center offers I corps military and civilian personnel in the Kyoto area, an opportunity to prepare themselves for future careers, both in the army and in civilian life. Courses are offered in such diverse subjects as languages, science, social sciences and trades, in both high school and college levels.

Pfc. Sorensen is now assigned to the 58th Signal Battalion, a non divisional unit of I corps, located in Kyoto. He has been serving with this battalion, as a cook, since December 1946, when he arrived in Japan. Prior to entering the service, he attended Palatine high school, in Ill.

New Illinois air unit called 'hobby with pay'

A new membership drive has been launched for the new Illinois Air National Guard, which has been described as a flying hobby with pay.

Membership in the new air national guard units will not interfere with civilian occupations, since members attend only one two-hour meeting each week.

Under the new pay scale in effect for the air group, each member receives a full day's regular army pay for each two-hour weekly assembly. If a member qualifies for flying status, he earns 50 per cent additional pay.

The Illinois 66th Fighter Wing has units located at the Orchard Place (Douglas) airport and in Peoria, Ill. All American males between 17 and 45, and in good health, may apply for membership at either of the two centers. It is not necessary to be a veteran to qualify.

The new Illinois Air National Guard units are an outgrowth of the 108th Observation Squadron of the old Illinois National Guard. This famous squadron was originally organized at Kelly Field, Texas, on August 27, 1917, as the 108th Aero Squadron.

Inducted into federal service on February 3, 1941, the 108th Observation Squadron participated in major maneuvers in the United States during 1941. On December 28, 1941, three weeks after Pearl Harbor, the unit was on its way to foreign service—the first national guard squadron to leave the continental limits of the United States.

Arlington man at insurance school

Orville Vincent, Arlington Hts. member of the Zern agency of Northwestern National Life Insurance company of Minneapolis, has just returned from Glenwood, Minn., where he was one of 15 men selected from the company's national sales organization to attend a special two weeks' agents' training school.

The school offers an intensive course of instructions in selling and servicing life insurance and forms an integral part of the company's enlarged program of service to its policyholders and the public, president of the firm. Held four times a year, the school is staffed by home office experts on life underwriting, marketing, and salesmanship.

Selecting of the men to attend the school is based on sales ability and capacity to apply the study material as demonstrated during a preliminary training period. With successful completion of the course, Mr. Vincent has been assigned specific local selling and servicing responsibilities.

To vote April 3 on three referendums at Libertyville

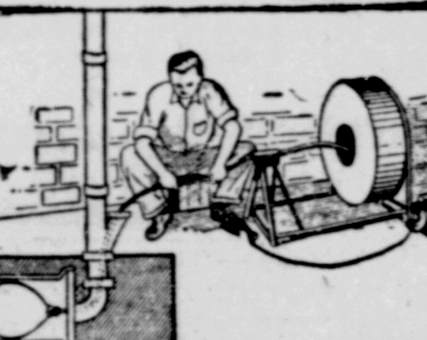

Three referendums will be held at the Village hall in Libertyville on Saturday, April 3. Ordinances providing settlement of three proposals were passed Tuesday night by the Village board. They are:

- 1—Shall the village tax levy for general corporate purposes be increased from .119 per cent to .3 per cent to obtain funds to meet a deficit?
- 2—Shall the village issue $10,000 worth of bonds to meet the final payment for the new fire station?
- 3—Shall the municipal band tax be repealed.

The committee suggested increasing the vehicle license fee from $3 to $5 and the truck license fee from $5 to $10.

The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
